Say It Again

"We weren't gonna let him get tired in this race. We wanted to make sure he had a lot of works underneath him, a lot of works in company, a lot of works from off the pace."
Trainer Lacey Gaudet, on H P Moon winning his return from a year layoff at Laurel Park

"Does he say that to all of his clients?"
West Virginia breeder John McKee, on 'This is a nice horse' feedback from Pennsylvanian Clovis Crane

"That won't change unless one of them departs this earth."
West Virginia Breeder Cyndy McKee, on the annual mating of stallion Fiber Sonde and broodmare Holy Pow Wow

"It was like gaining 10 years of my life back."
Dr. Brooke Bowman, veterinarian and breeder, on attending fewer foalings (while still being available for emergencies) on the farm

"Talk about a population explosion."
Runnymede Farm's Jim Bergen, on the 2024 foal crop at the Pennsylvania farm potentially going to 19 (this year's list only goes eight deep)

"There were six kids, so I think it was mostly to get us out of our mother's hair."
Owner/breeder Jim Poulos, whose father used to take him (and his siblings) to the races

"I've been ready, but nobody else is ready so they're using up my time."
Pennsylvania breeder Shirley Lojeski, on the broodmares following their own timetables when it comes to foaling dates

"If the weather holds up like this, I'm going to say good."
Trainer Susan Cooney, in mid-February, when asked how her winter was going

"The Super Bowl when Whitney Houston sang and the Redskins won. That's what made me become a citizen. That's it, sorry The Queen, I love you to death, but I'm part of America. I became a citizen. I never told my mother."
The English-born Suzanne Moscarelli, on her motivation (from 1991) to become an American citizen

Still Having Fun wins one more

Maryland-bred Grade 2 stakes winner Still Having Fun won a $5,000 claiming race at Laurel Park Jan. 29, but picked up an even bigger victory when his original trainer and co-breeder Tim Keefe claimed the gelding and retired him.

Bred by Keefe along with Charles and Cynthia McGinnes of Thornmar Farm in Chestertown, Still Having Fun was foaled April 16, 2015. The son of Old Fashioned and the unraced Dehere mare Casual Kiss sold for $12,000 to Keefe client Jim Scott's Terp Racing at the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic yearling sale.

"I had the mother of the dam, who was unraced, but she had a lot of talent," said Keefe of the Numerous mare Bushel and a Peck. "He was a nice individual, and I liked the looks of him."

Still Having Fun took his first step toward bigger things with a debut win at Laurel in November 2017, which drew the attention of national owners Gary Barber and Wachtel Stable. They bought in, left the horse with Keefe and Still Having Fun made his next 20 starts in stakes.

He won Laurel's Frank Whiteley Jr. and Miracle Wood to kick off his 3-year-old season, finished second to future sprint champion Mitole in the Chick Lang at Pimlico on Preakness Day and landed the Woody Stephens-G2 at Belmont Park on Belmont Stakes Day. The 13-1 upset is Keefe's only graded stakes win in a 30-year training career. Still Having Fun made additional graded stakes starts at Saratoga, Santa Anita, Keeneland, Churchill Downs, Aqueduct and Laurel – placing in the Malibu-G1 in 2018 and General George-G3 in 2020.

"Adam [Watchel] and Gary helped to direct a lot of where we went in his career, so we went all over the place with him," said Keefe. "Going into the Woody Stephens, he was doing well, and was second in the Chick Lang, so we knew he was talented. To be part of a young horse and pick him out of a sale, and [to see him] go on to do what we did with him was a great feeling."

The stakes form didn't last, however, as Still Having Fun lost 15 consecutive races after the Woody Stephens before being claimed by trainer Jamie Ness for $25,000 out of a second at Laurel in February 2021.

"The claiming game can be a real difficult dilemma," said Keefe. "He started to wane a bit as a 5-year-old, so we gelded him, gave him some time off, and the thought process was to drop him, make it a little easier for him, get his confidence back, and see where it goes. Unfortunately, we lost him."

Still Having Fun won for a $35,000 tag in May 2021, missed almost a year and was claimed for $15,000 by Luis Collazo last summer. Ness took him back for the same price in his next start. Second for $10,000 in late September, Still Having Fun returned in December before two starts for $5,000 in 2023.

Keefe always kept an eye on Still Having Fun, and when the 8-year-old showed up in the entries, the moment was right. Still Having Fun retires with a career record of 6-5-4 from 37 starts, with earnings of $641,137. Four wins and $582,817 came under Keefe's care.

For now, Keefe plans to keep him at the track for a while to let him unwind and make sure he's OK, then begin navigating his second career. Wachtel, Barber, the McGinneses, exercise rider Peter Brown-Whale and his wife Jen have contacted Keefe about ensuring a second home.

Keefe always enjoyed Still Having Fun's company in the barn.

"He was wonderful," the trainer said. "He was very businesslike, loved to train in the mornings. Everyone loved getting on him in the morning. He gave 110 percent every time he ran. He was a nice, hard-trying horse. It's fun to have him back, and it'll be really neat to watch him in his second career." – John Piassek

Names of the Month

Unlock. The 5-year-old mare, bred by Rob Masiello and Tom Albertrani, is out of Finders Key. Now with Johannie Lugo Santiago and trainer Alfonso Arias, Unlock won at Charles Town in November.

If Then. The 4-year-old Maryland-bred filly, who races for Eldon Farm and JoAnn Smith, is out of Still.

Major Houlihan. R D M Racing Stable's 3-year-old filly, a runner at Laurel Park in February, is by Army Mule out of Lookin' Foxy. She's named for the M*A*S*H character Margaret "Hot Lips" Houlihan.

Go Figure

369 Three-year-olds nominated to the 2023 Triple Crown as part of the early-nomination process which closed Jan. 28. Horses were made eligible for the Kentucky Derby, Preakness and Belmont Stakes (all Grade 1) via a $600 fee. The second deadline, March 29, requires a $6,000 fee. The group includes Maryland-breds Circling the Drain, Easy Action and Seven's Eleven, and Pennsylvania-breds Angel of Empire, Fletcher and Foxburg. The early nominations phase saw an increase of 57 horses over 2022.

21 Mares due to foal in February at Pennsylvania's Blackstone Farm, which only had two foals born in January.

Milestones

Created:

By the National Steeplechase Association and the Achuff family, the Skip Achuff Memorial Stalwart of Steeplechase Award, to be presented annually to a jockey, race official, race meet director or other individual who supports the growth of steeplechase racing. The award honors Charles Wayne "Skip" Achuff Jr., a Pennsylvanian who was a jockey in the 1970s and 1980s, racing official, Equibase chart caller and race director at the Radnor Hunt Races. He died in August 2022 at age 77. To honor his memory, his family created the award which will recognize an individual who represents the sport with professionalism, integrity and dedication; knows and upholds the rules of the sport; and prioritizes safety of horses, jockeys and others. To nominate an individual via an official nomination form, contact the NSA at (410) 392-0700 or email Jacquelyn.m.achuf@lmco.com.

Scheduled:

For the 2023 spring season, 16 race meets, the National Steeplechase Association. Racing starts in Aiken, S.C., with the Aiken Steeplechase March 25 and continues through the Radnor Hunt Races in Malvern, Pa., May 20. Total purses for the spring season are approximately $2.4 million with the Iroquois Steeplechase (May 13) at $445,000, Virginia Gold Cup (May 6) at $390,000 and Middleburg Spring Races (April 22) at $250,000 topping the list in terms of prize money. Hurdle stakes horses get a chance to compete in the Temple Gwathmey-G2 at $100,000, Iroquois-G1 at $200,000 and the David Semmes Memorial-G2 at $100,000 among others while the Maryland Hunt Cup and Virginia Gold Cup highlight the timber stakes calendar at $100,000 each. In a later-developing move, the NSA and Virginia's Old Dominion Hounds Point-to-Point have teamed up to offer three races worth $65,000 April 8, formerly an open date on the NSA calendar. Its fifth Eclipse Award for writing, Mid-Atlantic Thoroughbred magazine, when senior writer Tom Law's 2022 Preakness Stakes coverage from the July edition was selected in the News/Enterprise category in the annual Thoroughbred journalism award overseen by the National Thoroughbred Racing Association, Daily Racing Form and National Turf Writers and Broadcasters. It was the second consecutive Eclipse for the magazine, following a feature by Sandra McKee in 2021. Law wrote "Big Tally: Early Voting gives Klarman, Brown second victory in Preakness Stakes," which anchored the magazine's Preakness coverage and focused on the decision by owner Seth Klarman and trainer Chad Brown to keep their horse in New York – rather than ship to Florida with the rest of the string – late in 2021 and through the winter of 2022. It was the second Preakness win in six years for Klarman, who grew up a few blocks from Pimlico Race Course, and Brown as they teamed up to capture the 2017 race with Cloud Computing. In the final paragraph of the Eclipse-winning article, Klarman called the Preakness a memorable moment. "You know, I've lived my adult life in Boston, but it's an incredible experience to come back to my hometown and have a chance to compete at this level," he said afterward. "It's one of the highlights of a career owning racehorses. A really extraordinary feeling." A native of Saratoga Springs, N.Y., Law grew up attending the races at Saratoga Race Course and started his career in journalism on the

Double Shot of 'Moonshine'

Maryland-bred champion 2-year-old filly of 2022, Malibu Moonshine built an immediate resume by winning her first three starts – a maiden special and two stakes at Laurel Park – last year for New York-based trainer Charlton Baker.

She's not the first Malibu Moonshine to win important races at Laurel however as a Florida-bred with the same name was part of trainer King Leatherbury's Maryland barn in the mid-2000s. A son of Malibu Moon foaled in 2002, the chestnut won his debut at Colonial Downs in 2004, finished fifth in the Laurel Futurity-G3 and won Charles Town's St. Nick Stakes Dec. 26. At 3, he won the Miracle Wood, Private Terms and Federico Tesio to earn a start in the Preakness-G1 (he was eighth of 14 behind Afleet Alex).

In 2006, Malibu Moonshine won the Point Given Stakes at Monmouth Park for trainer Tom Albertrani and an allowance at Mountaineer for Jim Ryerson. By 2007, Gary Contessa was the trainer and Malibu Moonshine won a stakes at Aqueduct and finished third in the Suburban-G1 among a dozen starts. He won Aqueduct's Stymie in 2008 and added solo wins in 2009 and 2010, finishing with a dozen wins and $597,370 from 62 lifetime starts. He retired to a brief career at stud in New York.

Rock Slide dies at 25

Jim Steele didn't mince words when it came to Rock Slide, the pensioned 25-year-old Shamrock Farm stallion who was euthanized Feb. 8.

"He was the alpha male here at the farm," Steele said. "Every mare that went into the breeding shed he thought was his. Every time a stallion walked past his stall, he kicked the wall. No ifs, ands or buts about it."

The attitude was there at the beginning, when the son of A.P. Indy entered stud in 2004 at Shamrock while construction was completed on the new Maryland Stallion Station, remained when he returned to Shamrock in 2009 and was still there when he was pensioned in 2016. It never really left.

"He stayed that way," said Steele. "All the other stallions got turned out all morning and came in at lunch. He went out after they came in and stayed out all afternoon. You couldn't put him next to another stallion because he would walk the fence and want to get at them. But everybody loved him, and he was a great horse to have on the farm."

One of five stakes winners from as many foals out of Grade 1 winner Prospectors Delite (by Mr. Prospector), Rock Slide won nine races and earned $442,500 for breeders Will Farish, James Elkins Jr. and W. Temple Webber Jr. The full-brother to 2003 Horse of the Year Mineshaft and dual Grade 1 winner Tomisue's Delight sired a dozen stakes winners and the earners of more than $11.6 million.

Pennsylvania-bred filly Ariana D earned $707,075, won three stakes and placed in eight graded stakes. Shamrock-bred Rocky Policy won eight races (two stakes) and earned $449,709. Her first foal, a Gun Runner filly, sold for $175,000 as a yearling in 2022.

"He got some attention because of Mineshaft, and he sired some nice horses," said Steele. "He lived a great life and we're going to miss him."

"Tom really loved his horses, and he really loved THIS horse."

The Tom in Mimi Voss' statement is her late husband, Hall of Fame trainer Tom Voss, and the horse is Sam Sullivan. Now 30, Sam Sullivan lives with other retirees on the Voss family's Atlanta Hall Farm in Monkton, Md. It's been his home for 29 years, since Mimi Voss saw him on the farm owned by his breeder, Victor Divivo.

It was an intentional search. A few years prior, the Vosses won two turf races with the Divivo-bred Baltimore Dancer.

"Baltimore Dancer was a great big gray, and I went looking for any other progeny, which I've done many times," Mimi Voss said. "Victor had his younger half-brother, and I bought him as a yearling. That's Sam Sullivan."

Both gray Maryland-breds were sons of another Divivo-bred, the unraced Restless Native mare Cretian Queen. Sam Sullivan is by Temperence Hill, champion 3-year-old colt of 1980 and winner of that year's Belmont Stakes-G1, Travers-G1, Jockey Club Gold Cup-G1 and Arkansas Derby-G2.

Tom Voss sent his wife's 4-year-old gelding to Atlantic City for his first start – a maiden special on the grass – July 9, 1997. He finished second in a four-horse race. Eleven days later, he was pulled up in a maiden special over hurdles at the Saratoga Open House. Back home in Maryland in August, he was beaten 23½ lengths when seventh on the turf at Laurel Park.

He never ran on the flat again, winning a maiden claimer ($8,000 tag) over hurdles at Virginia Fall in October and converting to timber for the 1998 season. His schedule was sporadic at first with a single start (and win at Fair Hill) in 1998, a win and a second in two 1999 tries, and three consecutive wins in 2000 – cross-country races at Middleburg and Great Meadow plus the Radnor Hunt Cup timber stakes. He and young stable jockey Jonathan Kiser combined to win all six races together from 1997-2000, a partnership that ended when Kiser was killed in an accident at his family home in July. The two-time champion rider was 22 and the loss staggered the steeplechase community, most particularly Tom Voss.

Sam Sullivan returned the following year, and won the cross-country race at Great Meadow on Virginia Gold Cup Day, and then repeated the Radnor Hunt Cup win two weeks later with Roger Horgan aboard. In 2002, 9-year-old Sam Sullivan won the Grand National at Butler under Blair Waterman (now Wyatt) defeating staunch timber rivals Young Dubliner (Ire) and Swayo. Customarily, the next step is to come back the following week for the Maryland Hunt Cup in Glyndon.

"He was favored for the Hunt Cup," Mimi said. "I was co-chair of the Maryland Hunt Cup Ball that year, and Tom came up to me and said, 'How would you feel if something happened to Sam during the Hunt Cup, and there you are welcoming hundreds of people? How would you like to stand in that receiving line?' I said, 'Fine, he doesn't have to run.' And that was it. I don't even know if Tom entered him. He was not going to have anything happen to him."

The horse's absence spoke volumes: Young Dubliner won that Hunt Cup in record time, with 2000 Hunt Cup winner Swayo (who would win the 2003 edition) second.

Sam Sullivan's success continued, Hunt Cup or no. With Waterman, he won the 2002 Mason Houghland Memorial timber stakes on the Iroquois card. They won the hometown My Lady's Manor in 2003, finished third in 2004 and fourth in 2005.

Then 12, he retired after the 2005 running and took 11 wins, six seconds, two thirds and $190,000 earned in 26 starts with him. He was the Maryland Steeplechase Association novice champion in 1998, and timber champion in 2002. Sam Sullivan appears on Equibase's list of top horses trained by Tom Voss – along with graded turf stakes winners John's Call, Dreadnaught and Always First (GB), steeplechase champion Slip Away, the dual-purpose Cookie, and major hurdle winners Planets Aligned and Quel Senor (Fr).

Originally from Massachusetts, Mimi didn't ride, but focused instead on breeding. She bred "lots of nice horses," including stakes winners Guelph, Mickey Free, Teb's Bend and others. Sam Sullivan doesn't make the homebred list, but he still feels like family.

"I looked up one of Tom's quotes when he was asked about Sam Sullivan's racing ability," she said. "He said, 'Sam is Sam. Good, consistent and honest. He's got a good disposition, and he is like a pet to us.' "

Even his name matters. The Vosses' son, Sam, discovered a collection of letters written home by ancestor Franklin Voss about his best friend Sam Sullivan. In their late teens, they fought together in the Civil War.

"My Sam was young, and he was fascinated," Mimi said. "And Tom had always been a Civil War buff."

For several years after his retirement, Sam Sullivan – the horse – was ridden in the hunt field by Elizabeth Voss, Tom and Mimi's daughter who took over her father's training business when he died in 2014.

"Elizabeth said he was excellent in his old age until his hock started bothering him," Mimi said.

These days, the gelding lives in a field with several other horses, a snowman among a group of bays and chestnuts. At their disposal is a large shed, deep with straw. He's still fed grain twice a day during the winter, and happily munches carrots when offered. And to this day, he has no soundness issues, and there's not a bump or blister on him.

"Sam Sullivan, as Tom said, was always consistent," Mimi said. "He had no bad manners. It was exciting for me to win all those races. I think watching a timber race when you own the horse and you've had it since it was a baby, you're about to have a heart attack. And I was there every time he ran. He took us everywhere."

Mare magic always delivers

It never fails. This time of year, when I'm chasing interviews about "notable" broodmares in the region, I get hit with the importance, dignity, steadfastness and grace of the Thoroughbred broodmare.

Racehorses own the spotlight for their racetrack exploits.

Stallions receive attention for past racing success or the potential of their offspring.

Two-year-olds shine at the sale in May, drawing the biggest names in racing to Timonium each year.

Yearlings get their chances in the show and sale rings.

Even broodmare prospects step into the sales arenas in Kentucky and command seven- or even eight-figure bids.

But broodmares? When was the last time a broodmare – a six-or-so-foals-into-her-career broodmare – attracted real attention? For me, it's every February when I try to write that article (see page 28). For breeders, foal-watchers and hands-on broodmare managers, I'm sure it happens, but you don't hear much chatter about broodmares on the apron at Laurel Park, around the paddock at Parx Racing or leaning on the rail at Charles Town.

"Hey Larry, who do you like in the first?"

"The 2 has solid numbers, man, but I'm still looking for a winner. What about you, Ray?"

"What do you guys think about Holy Pow Wow? She's amazing."

Larry and his friend were last seen walking away from Ray, shaking their heads with each step.

Shouldn't the mares get as much attention as every other subset of the Thoroughbred breed? Mares' Day at the racetrack probably won't be a big seller so don't rework the marketing budget because I made it sound like a good idea, but we could think about them a little more.

Somewhere, pretty much all year, broodmares are making new racehorses. A mare is pregnant, about to be pregnant or raising a foal – unless she gets a rare year off to recover from all that work. Like your mom, the broodmare has a difficult job. She eats for two, carries her weight and the growing foal on legs that aren't any bigger than a gelding's. She lives outside most of the time. She only sporadically gets groomed. She weathers winter, submits to summer and does the best she can to impart some life lessons on a child who grows up too fast, moves away and ultimately forgets about her.

And once a year, she risks her life to give birth. How many stories have you heard about mares dying during – or shortly after – foaling? It's not an easy thing.

My role, in speaking to breeders, owners and farm staffers about mares, is to gather the stories. I hope readers get a feel for what the horses are like. I don't meet many – I'd spend all day driving around visiting horses if I could – but the goal is to provide a slice of personality, a glimpse at how the mothers of your favorite racehorses do their jobs.

The term "notable" is mine and means nothing more than a broodmare worth learning more about, which is pretty much all of them. They're all notable when you really think about it. People sometimes need a nudge or a refresher to find a reason to talk about mares, but usually warm up to it.

Broodmares can be calm, stressed, friendly, grumpy, bossy, small, big, rawboned, coarse, refined, easy, difficult. Some get along with everybody. Some want to be alone. Some help raise other mares' babies. Others don't want to raise their own.

The descriptions never fail to make me smile. There's a mystery to breeding, and isn't that the point? Biology and genetics and nature are at work, meaning all the pedigree research in the world won't guarantee a fast racehorse or even a healthy foal.

Holy Pow Wow, star broodmare of Beau Ridge Farm in West Virginia, has never been bred to anyone but Fiber Sonde – who also lives at Beau Ridge – and two of their four foals to race won a dozen races and $700,000 each. Brooke Bowman and Becky Davis chose Frosted as a mate for Vielsalm because he won the Whitney-G1 one race after she finished eighth in the Waya-G3 at Saratoga (brother and sister watched from the winner's circle because no one asked them to leave). The foal, Post Time, is undefeated in three starts. Jim and Gail Poulos got into ownership via claiming races, didn't really like it and decided to buy a mare. Made From Scratch produced three winners for her new owners. The second, Sweet Valor, nearly became a hunter/jumper in retirement but is the dam of $685,000-earner and 2022 Maryland-bred Horse of the Year Fille d'Esprit.

As some old horseman put it, "The person who says he's sure about something with horses is telling you a lie."

The liar (story-teller is a more apt description...) would talk about a can't-miss broodmare prospect. The old horseman would talk about every mare in the barn. ■

Magnificent Mares

RACEHORSE MOTHERS FIND THEIR NICHES THROUGHOUT THE MID-ATLANTIC

By Joe Clancy

Big-time breeder, small-time breeder, commercial farm expecting dozens of foals, private barn with a single pregnant mare . . . no matter where it happens, the science/art of bringing Thoroughbreds into the world each year remains the same.

And there's always a little magic too.

"To see the next crop, to see if I like the babies, that's the best part," said Todd Wilkinson, who manages his family's Hidden Acres 4-D Farm in New Jersey. "You check to see if their legs are straight, if everything looks good, that is why we do it. It's always nice to look forward to what you're going to have."

"You wait all year long to see them," said Cyndy McKee, who owns West Virginia's Beau Ridge Farm with her husband John. "Once they get on the ground, it's a waiting game again, but it's nice and there's nothing like sitting on a front porch in the summertime in the evening and they're all turned out and you can sit and watch them play. It's a lot of work, so it's better when you can appreciate things like that."

"To put it in one word, it's hope, the pure definition of hope," said Jim Bergen, who oversees the mares at Greg and Caroline Bentley's Runnymede Farm in Pennsylvania. "Everybody thinks they foal, they get on the ground, bingo, bango, boingo . . . and the vast majority of the time it is like that. But then you have things go wrong because they can go wrong, and you deal with that as best you can. Where my office is, I can see them as foals, as weanlings, and you start seeing the gameness in them, the competitiveness and it's very rewarding."

Wilkinson, McKee, Bergen and all the other people tied up in the Mid-Atlantic breeding industry felt that and more as breeding sheds opened, early foals took their first steps and mares drew closer to delivery dates. Like always, the mares controlled the ultimate timetable, and captured all the attention.

In a semi-regular tradition, Mid-Atlantic Thoroughbred checked in with some of the region's notable – define it any way you want – broodmares.

Big Z is OK

Pennsylvania breeder Lizzie Merryman periodically writes in a journal, and went back to her entry from 2017 – "Little Z is the prettiest foal I've ever had." Little Z lived up to that description, and then some, as she turned out to be Breeders' Cup winner, $1.3 million earner and Eclipse Award finalist Caravel. Her dam, Zeezee Zoomzoom, followed up her first foal with winner Tipsy Chatter and stakes winner Witty to earn a 2023 date with Triple Crown winner Justify.

"The contract is signed," said Merryman in early February. "She's still sitting out in front of my house and will get checked soon to see how close to cycling she is and then she'll go to Kentucky."

After Caravel, a daughter of Mizzen Mast, Zeezee Zoomzoom produced four foals by regional stallions – Bourbon Courage, Great Notion, Holy Boss and Great Notion again – before going to Street Boss in 2021. She produced a filly last year, but was not bred for 2023.

LIZZIE MERRYMAN

Being a broodmare fits Zeezee Zoomzoom now, but that wasn't always the case.

"When I got her she was 4, which is really young to be a broodmare, and she was kind of like really full of herself," said Merryman. "She's very much an alpha mare, very tough on other horses and she was that way for a few years."

The free broodmare would race around the field while turned out, weave in the stall while in the barn and eat her daughter's food. Still, Merryman liked what she saw from the Congrats mare who won once in 10 starts for trainer Amy Tarrant.

"She was such a pretty mover galloping around the field and I was thinking that if she could throw that she'd be OK," Merryman said. "I'd never bred a mare that young, but it's somewhat just her personality and her babies' personalities. They have so much spunk and attitude. They're smart and full of themselves."

And racehorses.

Caravel became a star. Tipsy Chatter (by Bourbon Courage) won, showed talent before being retired with a shoulder injury and will join Merryman's broodmare squad this year with a booking to Daredevil. Four-year-old Great Notion gelding Witty has won four of nine, including three stakes, and was working toward a 2023 return after missing several months with an eye injury. Three-year-old Holy Boss gelding Mission Man lost all three starts last year, but was also prepping for 2023 after a short freshening. Two-year-old Enzo (by Great Notion), "really nice and also very opinionated," and a yearling filly by Street Boss complete the lineup.

"She's had six perfectly correct babies, that's what I like about her," said Merryman. "Every single one, you look at and you say, 'Wow.' You wouldn't change a hind-leg angle, anything. I have other mares where I say, 'I love this baby, but I wish this, or I wish that.' That's a pretty nice thing to have."

Now 11, the gray "Big Z" is more white and more relaxed than those first few years – while still keeping some of her old traits.

"She's the boss, but she's mellow and easy to deal with now," said Merryman, who got a black eye while trying to give Zeezee Zoomzoom a hug in 2020. "She wasn't a particularly happy horse when she first got here. She was nervous and tentative about people. Now she's very pleasant to people. She's a stress type of horse when you change things up on her, and she's better about other horses too. Everybody respects her and keeps their distance, but she doesn't go after them like she used to."

Miss New Jersey

Nobody will call Nosubstituteforluv the boss, but that doesn't matter much thanks to her production as a broodmare. Her 2017 foal by Bourbon Courage, Fortheluvofbourbon, won seven races in 2022 and had pushed his lifetime earnings to $573,120 when he died of colic a week after winning the Maryland Million Sprint in October.

"Fortheluvofbourbon is the best horse we've ever raised," said Todd Wilkinson of New Jersey's Hidden Acres 4-D Farm. "You only dream you can raise one like that. He was average as a foal, wasn't the fastest one, but he tried to outrun the others."

He got some of that from his dam, even if she keeps a low profile around the 220-acre farm (also home to two stallions, 30 beef cows and a hay and straw operation).

"She's kind of Quarterhorsey-looking, very muscular, just not very tall," said Wilkinson. "Sometimes she can be a little bit of a handful. She has the attitude and the spunk, but she's not the queen of the pasture. She's one of the lower mares on the totem pole."

Bred by Hidden Acres, the 11-year-old daughter of Not For Love and the Deputed Testamony mare Substitute Witness raced just once before being retired. Fortheluvofbourbon was her first foal, followed by a 2018 Uncle Lino filly Gateway Love (winless in two starts) and a 2021 colt (now gelding) by Bourbon Courage. Named Jerseybourbonluver, he sold for $77,000 as a yearling. Nosubstituteforluv's 2022 colt by Bold Thunder is growing up at Hidden Acres and could be headed to a sales ring too.

Nosubstituteforluv was carrying a Bourbon Courage foal, with a May due date, and Wilkinson was planning on another trip to the Maryland stallion.

"We've been in this business long enough to know – you can have a full-brother to a stakes horse and nothing will happen – but Bourbon Courage has done really well with a small group of horses. I love that he ran and stayed sound. We'll try to breed her back to him, even if it's going to be late."

The Wilkinson family (Doris, David, Dana and David – who goes by Todd – are the four Ds) has been involved in New Jersey breeding and racing for decades after keeping its first runner as a broodmare in the 1970s. The band reached 12 at one point, with 50-60 horses on the farm, but has dipped to a more manageable four. The mares foal in Pennsylvania or New Jersey, depending on the sire involved, with foals headed to the sales ring or the racetrack.

A 'Giant' Role in Pennsylvania

In 2019, new broodmare Giant Shadow endured a difficult first delivery. Her foal spent time in intensive care at New Bolton, and she rejected him, then she developed colitis and almost died – dipping to 720 pounds. Four years later, the daughter of Giant's Causeway occupies a unique niche at Greg and Caroline Bentley's Runnymede Farm in Pennsylvania.

"Her major function now is she's a companion for whoever needs a friend," said broodmare manager Jim Bergen. "I use her as company when we only have one or two here waiting to foal. If I have barren mares, she's with them. I put her with the later-foaling mares too. She's a little bit lower down on the pecking order so she fits in with anybody."

A three-time winner with six stakes starts on the racetrack, Giant Shadow imparted something to her only foal – the Divining Rod gelding Loose Ends – also a winner of three races who placed in a stakes last year and has finished worse than third once in 14 starts. The success might make the daughter of Giant's Causeway a candidate for motherhood again but for now she'll stick with her current job.

"Maybe now she'd be better [as a mother], but we don't want to put her through something terrible again," said Bergen. "We nursed her back to health then, and you remember that. The Bentleys are very compassionate and care about her. She's still part of the farm."

Runnymede will foal eight mares this year, but has a big group of mares headed mainly to Kentucky stallions. Judy In Disguise (GB), dam of the Bentleys' first homebred stakes winner Undercover Kitty, was due at the end of February to Not This Time and was booked to Uncle Mo. Her first foal, Eleazar, won his debut in 2021, got claimed away but was back on the farm and starting some early schooling lessons for a potential steeplechase career.

Three-time stakes winner Cinnabunny was retired last year after earning $370,560 and winning eight races. The daughter of Golden Lad was booked to Speightstown along with Alwaysinmotion, a half-sister to the Bentleys' Preakness Stakes-G1 starter Alwaysmining.

The Bentleys bought two mares from Sam-Son Farm's dispersal at Keeneland January in 2021. The stakes-placed Smart Strike mare Chic Thrill hails from the family of Canadian champions Catch the Thrill and Catch the Ring plus graded stakes winner Messier. Her 2-year-old colt by Hard Spun was prepping in Florida and she was in foal to Gun Runner. Theatric, a daughter of champions Bernardini and Ashado, also joined Runnymede via Sam-Son and Keeneland. Barren for 2023, she's the dam of a Kitten's Joy 2-year-old colt and a Medaglia d'Oro yearling. She left for Kentucky in February, booked to Gun Runner.

"They were both great opportunities to buy into families that don't come on the market very often," Bergen said of the Sam-Son mares.

Other Runnymede mares were headed to Good Magic, The Factor, Candy Ride (Arg), Munnings, Into Mischief and others in an expanding group of quality mares.

"If everybody gets in foal, we'll have 19 foals next year, which will keep us busy."

Giant Shadow will be ready.

West Virginia Royalty

Cyndy and John McKee don't ponder stallion choices for their mare Holy Pow Wow. She goes to farm stallion Fiber Sonde – always. The combination works like peanut butter and jelly, with the seventh foal due this month. The first six include five-time winner Indian Sound, $700,400-earner and multiple graded stakes winner Late Night Pow Wow, $743,175-earner and 12-time winner Muad'dib and a 2-year-old filly (Overnight Pow Wow) flashing ability with Clovis Crane in Pennsylvania.

> "She's probably the last one you would pick – whether it's five, 10 or 100 – you wouldn't pick her."
> – John McKee, about picking broodmare Holy Pow Wow out of a crowd

The McKees spent $8,000 on Fiber Sonde, an unraced half-brother to top stallion Speightstown, as a stallion prospect. He changed West Virginia's Thoroughbred landscape with scores of winners while matching particularly well with mares by Indian Charlie. A loser in all four starts, Indian Charlie mare Holy Pow Wow cost $5,000 as a broodmare prospect in 2013.

"She's a typical Indian Charlie mare," said Cyndy. "She's just kind of plain bay, a big old rawboned mare. She's got some personality, doesn't have a whole lot, but she likes peppermints and is easy to get along with. She doesn't raise hell or tear up anything. Some mares are just bitchy, but she's not that way."

John McKee took it a step further.

"I could put her in a pack of however many you want, but you couldn't pick her out," he said. "Rawboned as hell, bigger than most. She's easy to keep, easy to be around, but she will really fool you. She's probably the last one you would pick – whether it's five, 10 or 100 – you wouldn't pick her."

Not that it matters. Holy Pow Wow isn't leaving the McKees' Beau Ridge Farm. Typically sellers, the McKees hung on to that now 2-year-old filly – Cyndy literally paid John "cash money" for half so they own her together – and look forward to taking her to the races this year.

"People have wanted him to sell because he's always sold," Cyndy said. "We're not in a position where we have to sell. I own half and he owns half. We'll see how things go."

Holy Pow Wow isn't the only broodmare at Beau Ridge. The McKees expected to foal 30-35 mares (24 belong to Beau Ridge) while also standing six stallions and keeping a racing stable going. Indian Charlie daughter Ghost Canyon, whose foals include four six-figure earners, was due in April to Fiber Sonde. Stakes-winning Fiber Sonde mare Cat Thats Grey, dam of 11-time winner Command the Cat, was expecting a Master Rick foal. Her 2-year-old filly by Redirect, Direct the Cat, was prepping with Crane with a Redirect yearling colt coming along. Fiber Sonde daughter Aye a Song was in foal to Kentucky stallion Vekoma. Stakes-winning Jersey Town mare Brigintine Island was waiting on a Maximum Mischief foal.

Sweet Valor's success

Racehorse? Hunter/jumper? Dam of a Maryland-bred Horse of the Year?

Somehow, Sweet Valor covers all three descriptions. She won twice at the track for breeders Jim and Gail Poulos, retired to a second career with Steuart Pittman which ended when she was diagnosed with a spinal issue and then became a broodmare. Her first foal, Fille d'Esprit, won five races last year, had earned $685,101 through Feb. 17 and will pick up three Renaissance Awards at the Maryland Horse Breeders Association's awards ceremony in April.

Sweet Valor won twice at Delaware Park for the Pouloses and trainer Ken Furlong, the only real highlights in a 14-start career. The Maryland-bred daughter of No Armistice and the Waquoit mare Made From Scratch dealt with a kissing spine, a condition where vertebrae are too close together and result in the touching or overlapping of bony projections at the top of each vertebrae. Some horses show no signs. Others deal with fairly chronic pain that can affect athletic performance.

"We didn't know it at the time and if she didn't feel well she would just stop trying," said Jim Poulos. "She won two races and finished third once, but otherwise ran terribly."

Sent to Pittman for hunter/jumper training, Sweet Valor shined at first, but the back condition was discovered and off she went to a broodmare career. Bred to Great Notion in 2015, she produced Fille d'Esprit who – despite not racing until age 4 – has turned into one of the region's top runners with six stakes wins and a third in the 2022 Barbara Fritchie-G3. Sweet Valor is also the dam of Sweet Asta (a 6-year-old Nicanor gelding with three wins), Sweet Syntax (an unraced Editorial 4-year-old gelding), Never More Valor (a No Never No More 2-year-old filly) and a yearling filly by Blofeld.

"They all seem to get late starts in this family, but that hasn't slowed Fille d'Esprit," said Jim Poulos. "Sweet Valor is the sweetest horse there is. She's an uber mom, you can't get between her and her foals."

Boarded at Whitefield farm near Jarrettsville, Md., and temporarily leased to Michael Horvath, the 15-year-old mare was in foal to Blofeld again for 2023.

"Sweet Valor is the sweetest horse there is. She's an uber mom, you can't get between her and her foals."

– Jim Poulos, about the dam of Maryland-bred Horse of the Year Fille d'Esprit

"She'll have a May foal this year so we're going to reset the calendar for her," said Poulos, a retired patent attorney with the U.S. Department of Agriculture, about a future stallion choice. "It's really been fun watching her foals, but she can get a year off now."

From Maryland to Arizona

Chesapeake City, Md., and Phoenix, Ariz., are 2,336 miles apart but that hasn't stopped La Castiglione from making people think about the trip. The 5-year-old Maryland-bred mare has won seven races (three stakes) out west in the last 13 months.

Her dam Perverse, a daughter of Distorted Humor, stayed home, and was carrying a Great Notion foal for 2023.

Bred in Canada, Perverse sold for $200,000 as a yearling in 2005, raced at Chicago's Hawthorne Race Course and produced five Pennsylvania-bred foals for owner/breeder Larry Karp before joining the Bowman family's broodmare lineup in Maryland. Tritap filly Belial came first in 2016, and won three times. La Castiglione (by Uncle Lino) followed in 2018 and had won 10 of 24 starts. A 2019 Divining Rod filly Dry Well has won three times and a 2021 Golden Lad colt Brother Lad has yet to start. A yearling filly by Great Notion is "a tough cookie" according to co-breeder (with her brother Brooke and parents Tom and Chris) Becky Davis, and destined for the fall sale at Timonium.

Davis said Perverse, 19, would have a home at Roland Farm forever – only partly due to her produce record. Her foal of 2017 died, but she took on a new assignment after a mare at nearby Northview Stallion Station died while delivering a foal right about the same time.

"She was pretty maternal, she had plenty of milk and we thought maybe she would work because Northview needed a nurse mare," Davis said. "She took the baby right away. She nursed a foal at Northview, when we owned her, and raised the foal like it was her own. A lot of times when they've had their own foal, they know it's not their foal. We've only had a few mares do that over the years and it's an amazing thing. She will always have a home with us."

Broodmare love in Chesapeake City

Vielsalm already had Brooke Bowman's attention and relatively undying affection. That's what seven wins, a dozen placings, $329,285 in earnings and a graded-stakes placing will do for the relationship between a horse and an owner.

Of course, Vielsalm (named for a town in Belgium where Bowman competed in a cycling race) keeps adding to the relationship. Her first foal, What Does It Take, has won three races. Her third, Post Time, sold for $85,000 and put together an undefeated three-start juvenile season in 2022 capped by the Maryland Juvenile Championship Stakes win and a Maryland-bred championship.

"She's like my first horse true love, we had so much fun racing her, so she got me, we just get along," said Bowman, a veterinarian whose patients include plenty of mares and foals at his family's Roland Farm. "She likes me on the farm. She is not like that with everybody else so it kind of annoys everybody. I call out for her on the farm when I see her, and she comes to see me. She can be tough, and I think that's why she was good racing. She's easy repro-wise and is meant to be a broodmare and a racehorse."

The 13-year-old Fairbanks mare nearly died after delivering a McKinzie filly last year, further cementing her status with Bowman.

"A few weeks after having the foal, she colicked and had a five-hour surgery at New Bolton," Bowman said. "Never lost any weight, recovered from it fine, nursed the foal, she just carried on like normal. We got very lucky."

So did Vielsalm, who wasn't bred last year but was booked to Nyquist for 2023.

Future Flightline foal for Maryland

Sycamore Hall Farm mare Southampton Way should have been carrying a foal by Essential Quality this spring, but she didn't catch to that champion and instead gets a much-sought-after date with 2022 Horse of the Year Flightline.

"They smiled on us and accepted her," said David Wade, who manages Sycamore Hall for the Golden family. "You don't know until they call you and when you read the list of mares he's going to be breeding you feel pretty good about your mare. She belongs and we're excited to be part of it."

Standing at Lane's End Farm for a fee of $200,000 (the highest of any new stallion this year), Flightline will breed 150 mares in his first season. The group includes Triple Crown winner American Pharoah's dam Littleprincessemma, Grade 1 winners Bell's the One and Juju's Map, champion Shamrock Rose, Essential Quality's dam Delightful Quality and champion Forte's dam the Virginia-bred Queen Caroline on a deep list.

Southampton Way made the cut thanks to a mix of racetrack performance, progeny performance, pedigree and timing. The Maryland-bred won for Sagamore Farm at Saratoga as a 2-year-old in 2017 and backed up that with a second in the Adirondack Stakes-G2. Sycamore Hall spent $300,000 on the daughter of Into Mischief as a broodmare prospect in 2018 and her first foal (Speightstown colt Easy Action) sold for $300,000 as a yearling and won his 3-year-old debut at Oaklawn Park Jan. 28. Southampton Way delivered a Constitution filly, now named Independence Way, in April 2021.

Wade loved the potential of the Essential Quality match last year, but it wasn't meant to be.

"She was only bred once because it was late, and she didn't catch," Wade said. "Had she gotten in foal there, I don't think she would have been accepted to Flightline so maybe it was a good thing. She can be bred early, she's a young mare whose race record was pretty good and whose pedigree works too."

Wade's jobs with Sycamore Hall and Northview Stallion Station put him in contact with some of the region's leading broodmares, so narrowing down a list takes discipline. His mare Undisputed Legend warrants a check-in however as her son Whereshetoldmetogo was retired in 2022 after winning 17 races and earning just shy of $1 million. The 17-year-old mare was carrying a Mendelssohn foal, due in late February, and had been booked to Maxfield.

LYDIA A. WILLIAMS

Undisputed Legend, the dam of Maryland-bred champion Whereshetoldmetogo, has a date with Maxfield for 2023.

"She's a professional broodmare, a sweetheart," Wade said. "Just before foaling she gets a little grumpy, but once that baby's out she's a great mother."

The Mendelssohn foal will be the second for the daughter of Domestic Dispute, who produced a full-brother in 2021 that sold for $145,000 as a yearling at Timonium last fall.

"I loved him so that's why I bred her back to Mendelssohn, hoping I could strike lightning again," Wade said. "This foal will be in a sale when the other one is a 3-year-old so maybe something good will happen."

Wade will breed a daughter of Undisputed Legend, the winning Uncle Lino mare Miss Chesapeake, to Violence this year.

Sycamore Hall's mare Nasty, a $420,000 purchase in 2021, foaled a Gun Runner colt early in 2023 and was headed to Medaglia d'Oro. The daughter of Street Sense and the Grade 1-placed Valiant Passion won three times and placed in a Grade 3 stakes in California.

All in the family for Cooney

Susan Cooney.

Susan Cooney.

Susan Cooney.

There it is in three repetitive lines on the Equibase page. The breeding game. The dreamer's dream. Susan Cooney, the Virginia breeder/owner/trainer caught lightning in a bottle at least once when she bred the Virginia-bred In too Deep to Royal Academy. Embarr was born in 2008. The chestnut mare won nine races, five stakes, placed in a graded stakes and earned $358,247. That was lightning in a thimble. And like all dreamers, Cooney is still dreaming, sending Embarr to Kentucky-based Oscar Performance and her daughter, Fionnbharr, to Maryland-based True Valour (Ire) this year.

Based with Patricia Ramey at Blue Ridge Farm, the mares were being scheduled to be bred and return to foal Virginia-breds for Cooney.

"I'm a little light on mares, I ended up losing three over the last couple of years to colic, EPM and pneumonia so I don't have any foals coming this year, but I'm excited about Embarr going to Oscar Performance and Fionnbharr going to True Valour," Cooney said. "I like my maiden mares to foal at home, so we'll go with Virginia-bred, Maryland-sired with Fionnbharr. And Embarr is a special case, so she stays at home as much as possible, she's had a hard time foaling, she's had problems, maintaining pregnancies, that's why she has four foals at the age of 15."

Dreams are never simple.

"It's tough, it's never easy with any of them but with one like Embarr it's pins and needles the whole time," Cooney said. "She does have a beautiful The Factor colt, a short yearling. He's really nice."

Back to Equibase, Cooney's best performer of her 22-year career is Embarr. The fifth best is Fionnbharr, a multiple stakes-placed daughter of Exchange Rate. The seventh is In too Deep who started it all. Homebreds have pulled the cart all the way.

"It's not for the faint of heart," Cooney said. "There is no greater thrill than foaling a mare, raising the baby and having it go off to the races and win. Because you know how hard it is for it to happen. That's why you do it. On the other side, it can be heartbreaking."

LA CASTIGLIONE DAZZLES WITH STAKES WINS OUT WEST

By John Piassek

If you asked a Mid-Atlantic racing fan to name the five Maryland-breds to win at least three stakes races in 2022, four names would likely roll off the tongue. The hard-knocking sprinter Fille d'Esprit led with five, while the precocious filly Luna Belle was right behind with four. Malibu Beauty and Whereshetoldmetogo each won three.

But who's the fifth?

While the other four have spent their careers on the East Coast, La Castiglione found herself a few thousand miles west, in Arizona. The daughter of Uncle Lino, claimed by owner Jeff Jacobs for $7,500 in September 2021, won three stakes races last year, taking two at Arizona Downs in Prescott and one at Turf Paradise in Phoenix. Most recently, she won the City of Phoenix Stakes at Turf Paradise Jan. 23. While her accomplishments may be more obscure, or at least difficult to follow, La Castiglione has shown plenty of ability and versatility, winning around one turn and two, on dirt and on turf.

Bred by Dr. Tom Bowman, his wife Chris, their son Dr. Brooke Bowman and their daughter Becky Davis, La Castiglione was foaled April 26, 2018. She's out of the Distorted Humor mare Perverse, who had already enjoyed plenty of success with stakes-placed runners Ignite (by Jump Start), Instructor Kunu (E Dubai) and Belial (Tritap).

At the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic fall yearling sale in 2019, La Castiglione caught the eye of Courtney Young, whose father Russell purchased the bay filly for $15,000.

"I always liked horses bred by the Bowmans and Davis," said Young. "They let young horses be horses, so I always pay attention to the ones they breed. I thought she had a nice walk to her and some presence."

Young found La Castiglione to have some attitude, but it was manageable.

"She went about her business, she really liked to train, but I had to be on my guard," Young said. "She would make a certain move that would let you know she was about to pull a stunt, so at least I had some forewarning."

Young planned on selling her at the 2020 Midlantic 2-year-old sale, delayed until late June because of Covid-19, but she returned as a $42,000 RNA. Undeterred, Young decided to race her herself and ran her for a $25,000 tag in her debut at Laurel Park Feb. 6, 2021. She finished fifth and was claimed by Joe Besecker and trainer Claudio Gonzalez. She broke her maiden three starts later for her new connections at Monmouth Park May 29.

La Castiglione finished second in her next two starts, then started as the favorite in a $25,000 non-winners of two claiming race at Monmouth July 25. That day, she attracted the attention of Jacobs. He owned horses in the late 1990s, but left the sport after being involved in some partnerships. He returned in 2017 and began claiming horses at Turf Paradise, near his home. When he retired from the construction business in 2020, he became more involved, branching out to other tracks and attending sales. He visited Monmouth while on a two-week trip to New Jersey with his son.

"I had some horses at Tampa Bay Downs that winter, and my trainer [Cody Axmaker] went up to New Jersey. I bought one at the [Fasig-Tipton] Santa Anita sale, and I sent her to Monmouth along with a couple of the other ones I had," said Jacobs. "[Axmaker] liked her, and I liked her too, but we didn't want to claim her for $25,000."

Maryland-bred La Castiglione and regular jockey Hannah Leahey charge to victory in the Glendale Stakes at Arizona's Turf Paradise in November.

That day, she tied up and was eased, resulting in a claim being voided. Next out Aug. 28, she dropped in for $7,500. Jacobs put in a claim, but lost a shake to Kieron Magee. La Castiglione led most of the way and finished second. Persistence paid off, and the next time La Castiglione raced for that price, Sept. 11, Jacobs once again put in a claim, and this time he won the shake. She finished second in her final two starts of the Monmouth meet, but Jacobs pointed to an excuse for the underwhelming efforts.

"In her replays, I noticed she was lazy," he said. "That was the summer where Monmouth didn't allow whips, and I thought she needed a little bit of help, just to wake her up."

Jacobs and Axmaker sent her to Delaware Park for her next start Oct. 20, and with whip usage allowed, she responded to encouragement on the inside to win by 2 lengths. She won her next start at Tampa Bay Downs, and was sent to Turf Paradise and trainer Juan Quintana Gutierrez not long after.

"I wanted to see her run in Arizona, and I didn't have a lot of horses here, so it was a good opportunity to give Juan more horses," said Jacobs, with Gutierrez since 2018. "Also, she had cleared a lot of her claiming conditions, and was well-beaten in allowance company in Florida. I didn't want anyone to claim her, and I thought she'd have an easier time in allowance races here."

"She is unbelievably competitive. She's a go-getter, 'don't mess with me' kind of girl."

– Jockey Hannah Leahey, about La Castiglione

La Castiglione was no better than third in her first three starts at Turf Paradise, but broke through with a 10¼-length win in a first-level allowance April 4. Next came a turf race, something her original owner had in mind from the beginning.

"I had a feeling that turf would be her friend," said Young, "but I dropped her into a dirt race because it was winter, and of course there were no turf races at the time."

La Castiglione also got a rider switch. Born in Indiana and raised in Illinois, Hannah Leahey started her career with horses as an eventer. While attending college at the University of Kentucky, she began breaking Thoroughbreds. In time, she graduated to galloping, and moved to California in 2019 to further her career.

"I got my jockey's license out there, but I had a couple of mentors say that it would be a good idea to go to Arizona and get some rides under my belt," she said.

With the Turf Paradise and Santa Anita Park racing schedules having little overlap, Leahey rode in Arizona during the week, then went to California on the weekends last year. She won her first race March 18.

Gutierrez and Leahey met through a mutual friend in California, and the trainer was quick to give the jockey mounts in Arizona.

"When she came out here, she wasn't getting much business," said Gutierrez. "She came over to my barn, and I introduced her to Jeff, and I told him, 'She's a good girl, she can ride, give her an opportunity.' I really trust her, she really trusts me, and we make a good team."

With Harry Hernandez, who rode her in April, unavailable to ride La Castiglione May 3, Gutierrez recommended Leahey. She rated off the pace and got up to win by a neck at 10-1 going a mile on the turf.

A few weeks later, racing shifted from Turf Paradise to Arizona Downs. Jacobs figured La Castiglione was in line for a big season and thought enough of Leahey's riding that he wanted her to keep the mount, even though she moved to Penn National for the summer.

"He was really pleased with the way she and I got along," said Leahey. "Jeff and I have a great relationship, and he was flying me from Penn to come and ride her."

"I said to her, 'You gotta come back. You need to have a stakes credential on your resume, we're gonna win [a stakes],' " Jacobs said, "and there wasn't a doubt in my mind."

Leahey appreciated the faith.

"I remember he said to me, 'These are small stakes races, but a stakes race is a stakes race, and you get along so great, I trust that you're gonna go out there and give 150 percent every single time, and I'd be happy to have you come out here and ride her.' "

La Castiglione made her first start of the Arizona Downs season in a 6-furlong allowance June 27, and Jacobs saw it as her first big class test. The field included Senoradiablo, who went 4-for-4 at the track in 2021 (with two stakes wins).

La Castiglione beat her by 4 lengths to snap the streak, as La Castiglione ran her winning streak to three and eyed the Queen's Stakes July 16. As her winning streak built, her connections began to learn her personality.

"She's very tough to train," said Gutierrez. "She's a little bit mean, but I've been patient with her, and we get along pretty good. She's a princess, I let her do whatever she wants to do. She loves to go to the track every day."

Leahey agreed.

"She is unbelievably competitive. She's a go-getter, 'don't mess with me' kind of girl. The first time I rode her, Jeff and Juan told me, 'Just don't get up in her mouth, she doesn't like that.' Coming from an eventing background, I know how to be soft with my hands. It's such a key point in event riding. As long as you get her where she needs to be, she'll do the rest for you. I don't wanna say she makes it easy, but I always feel confident going into a race with her."

She was in the perfect spot in the Queen's. The 3-5 favorite rated off the pace on the rail, struck the front at the top of the stretch, and held off Senoradiablo's late charge to win by a half-length in 1:09.54 for 6 furlongs.

"At that point there, we knew she was something special," said Jacobs, after his first stakes win as an owner. It was also Leahey's first stakes win: "It was a special moment. I definitely cried a little."

La Castiglione stretched back out for the Arizona Downs Distaff Aug. 15, and continued what track announcer Mike Dimoff referred to as "a torrid love affair with Arizona Downs" with a 1½-length win, her fifth consecutive victory. She concluded the season tied for the meet lead in wins, with three, and was the second-highest earning horse, with $40,215.

The waters of the Tranquility Lake Stakes at Del Mar Sept. 4 proved too deep, and she was fourth in the Jeff and Jack Coady Stakes Nov. 5 at Turf Paradise after a tough trip. She rebounded to win the Glendale over the Turf Paradise lawn Nov. 26, capping 2022 with her third stakes win and sixth victory.

A few weeks prior to La Castiglione's 2023 bow, Leahey went to the sidelines with broken ribs and a shoulder separation. Hernandez rode the mare in her 5-year-old debut, and she rolled on with a gate-to-wire victory in the City of Phoenix. The win improved her record to 10-5-2 from 24 starts, with earnings of $215,348. For the Gutierrez barn, she's earned $153,412.

Responsible for six of Leahey's 23 wins, La Castiglione has been a major cornerstone in the jockey's career.

"It's been such a blessing knowing Juan and Jeff," said Leahey. "The stars really aligned. Having met them and them taking such an interest in me as a jockey and wanting to help me get started. We've now won three stakes races, all at different distances, different surfaces. There are not many horses that you get to ride, especially as a bug, that are as special as her. It's such an incredible opportunity. I can't thank not only [Jeff and Juan] but the horse enough."

Like any trainer, Gutierrez preaches patience.

"We gotta see what's gonna happen in her next few races, we gotta go day by day, but right now she's the princess of the track," he said.

As for Young, she's happy to see La Castiglione go on to such success, even if it's thousands of miles away.

"It's very rewarding to know I had hands on her. I don't look back and think, 'Wow, I wish I still had her.' I've got a new set every year, and if anyone in that group goes on and runs well, I'll be happy." ■

REMEMBERING LEGENDARY COMPOSER, TOP OWNER/BREEDER BURT BACHARACH

By Sean Clancy

Burt Bacharach liked to thank his collaborators. At the piano, spinning on vinyl or on the way up the charts, there was Hal David, Bob Hilliard, Carole Bayer Sager, Elvis Costello, to name a few, who helped the legendary composer change the world of music.

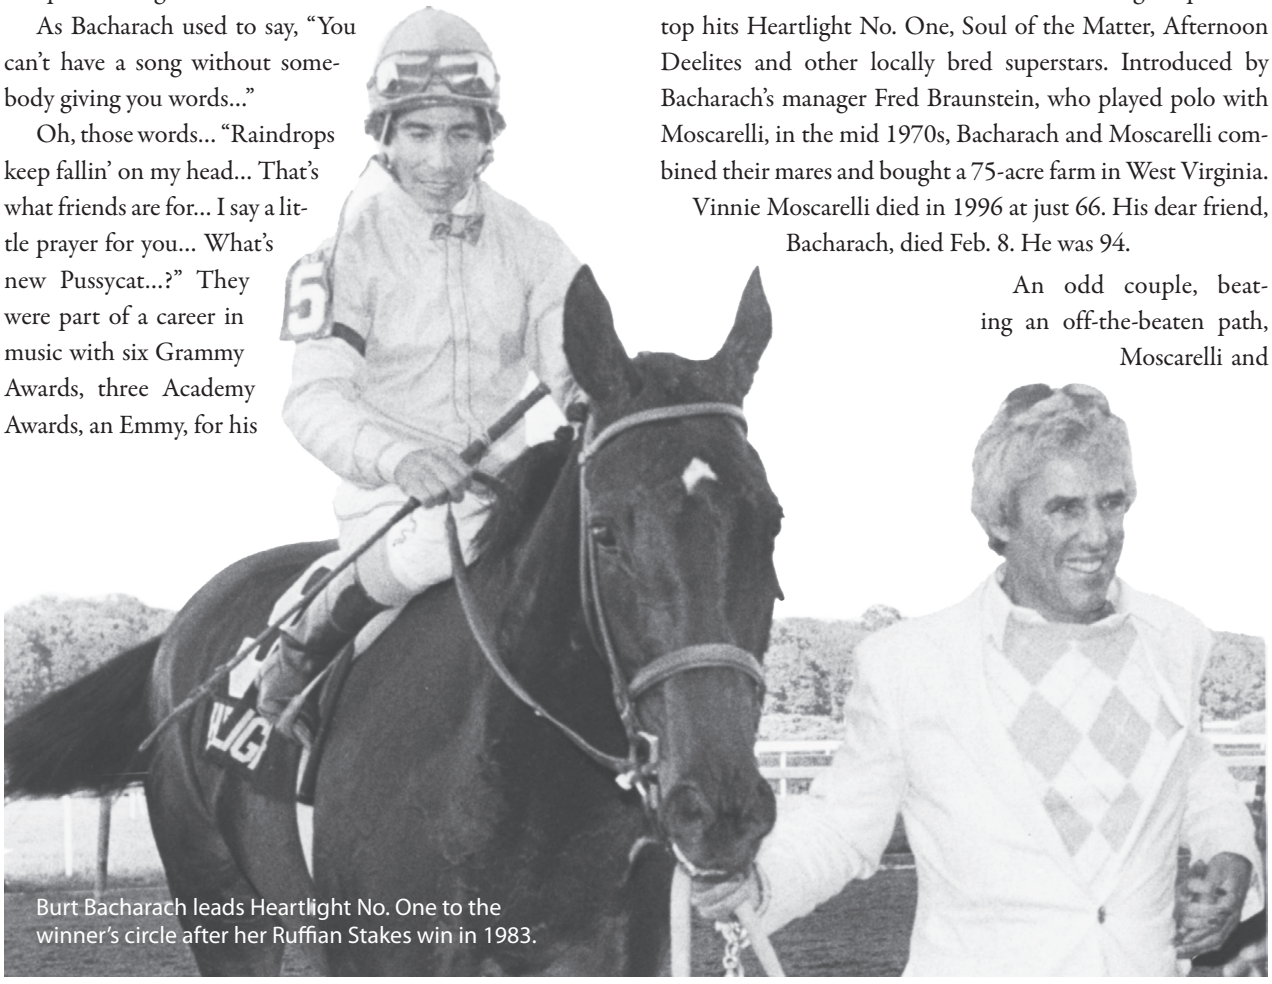
As Bacharach used to say, "You can't have a song without somebody giving you words..."

Oh, those words... "Raindrops keep fallin' on my head... That's what friends are for... I say a little prayer for you... What's new Pussycat...?" They were part of a career in music with six Grammy Awards, three Academy Awards, an Emmy, for his work sung by Dionne Warwick, Marty Robbins, Perry Como, Dusty Springfield, Tom Jones, The Carpenters and plenty of others.

In Thoroughbred racing, Bacharach shared words with Suzanne and Vincent Moscarelli, collaborating to produce top hits Heartlight No. One, Soul of the Matter, Afternoon Deelites and other locally bred superstars. Introduced by Bacharach's manager Fred Braunstein, who played polo with Moscarelli, in the mid 1970s, Bacharach and Moscarelli combined their mares and bought a 75-acre farm in West Virginia.

Vinnie Moscarelli died in 1996 at just 66. His dear friend, Bacharach, died Feb. 8. He was 94.

An odd couple, beating an off-the-beaten path, Moscarelli and



Burt Bacharach leads Heartlight No. One to the winner's circle after her Ruffian Stakes win in 1983.

COGLIANESE

Bacharach proved you can breed and raise a good horse anywhere.

"He had his horses in California and his accountant said to take them out of there, so we bought a little place in West Virginia. It was totally unheard of, a shocker. Everybody said, 'What are you doing in West Virginia? Nothing's in West Virginia,' " Suzanne Moscarelli said from her Chesapeake City, Md., home in February. "It was a great relationship all around. Foal the mares, break the babies, take them to Florida in the wintertime and send them out to California to Dickie Mandella if they were good enough."

Oh, they were good enough.

Heartlight No. One, a Maryland-bred daughter of Maryland sire Rock Talk and the Tell mare Icantell, won five of seven, including Grade 1 scores in the Hollywood Oaks and Ruffian Handicap. Named after the song "Heartlight," co-written by Bacharach and sung by Neil Diamond, the song reached number one on the Billboard Adult Contemporary list in 1982 and was the first song on Diamond's 1982 album of the same name. The horse won an Eclipse Award as champion 3-year-old filly in 1983.

She was an easy favorite to name for Suzanne Moscarelli.

"Heartlight. She was tough. Her mother rejected her, but she made it, big time," she said. "It was unheard of, from the backwoods to come up with a Heartlight No. One. It was amazing, absolutely amazing. And the others followed along. Out of not fancy-fancy stallions. You never know where they might come from."

Soul of the Matter, a West Virginia-bred son of Maryland sire Private Terms and Heartlight No. One's half-sister Soul Light, won seven of 16 for $2.3 million. The dark bay colt took Bacharach on a world tour, finishing fifth in the Kentucky Derby-G1, fourth twice in the Breeders' Cup Classic-G1 and, yeah, that was him, pushing Cigar all the way in the first Dubai World Cup-G1 in 1996.

Afternoon Deelites, a West Virginia-bred son of Private Terms and the Medaille d'Or mare Intimate Girl and a third-generation homebred for Bacharach's Blue Seas Music, captured seven of 12 and earned more than $1 million. The dark bay colt won his first five starts before finishing second in the Santa Anita Derby-G1 and eighth in the Kentucky Derby. He retired with two Grade 1 triumphs and was a 31-year-old celebrity as the oldest resident of Old Friends Equine in Kentucky until his death Feb. 14, just six days after his breeder. The equine memorial garden at Old Friends is named in memory for Nikki Bacharach, daughter of Burt and actress Angie Dickinson, who died in 2007.

"It was a wonderful relationship. It was a very beautiful time. As well as being so darn talented, he was the most caring person, he really was. He was always doing the best he could for everybody he could," Moscarelli said. "He wasn't a highfalutin film star; he was basically a wonderful guy who loved his horses and the people who took care of them. He was a real person."

Nobody had to polish the brass or dust the wall boxes when the Kansas City-born superstar came to Country Roads Farm to see his mares and foals.

"It was never, 'Oh God, here comes Burt Bacharach…' No way, no, just a regular, normal guy coming to look at his horses, to be with them, to sit and chat," Moscarelli said. "Didn't want airs and graces, didn't want to be treated any different, just a regular guy who loved his horses and the people who took care of them. There will never be another one like him. We were so fortunate to have known him."

As straight and true as her late husband and her late great singing friend, Moscarelli answers questions definitively. When asked about her favorite Bacharach horse, it was a simple, sign-the-check answer. Heartlight. As for her favorite Bacharach song, oh, that one was easy, too.

"Alfie."

She named her dog after the 1966 hit. You could hear the words and notes as Moscarelli waded in and out of wistful memories of a time gone past.

What's it all about, Alfie?
Is it just for the moment we live?
What's it all about when you sort it out, Alfie?
Are we meant to take more than we give?
Or are we meant to be kind?
And if only fools are kind, Alfie
Then I guess it is wise to be cruel
And if life belongs only to the strong, Alfie
What will you lend on an old golden rule?
As sure as I believe there's a heaven above, Alfie
I know there's something much more
Something even non-believers can believe in
I believe in love, Alfie
Without true love we just exist, Alfie
Until you find the love you've missed, you're nothing, Alfie
When you walk, let your heart lead the way
And you'll find love any day, Alfie

H P MOON RETURNS TO RACES WITH ALLOWANCE SCORE

By John Piassek

He's only raced three times, but H P Moon has packed a lifetime's worth of drama, hype and adversity into his brief career. He made news before he even raced, dazzled when he finally made it to the races and returned to the Mid-Atlantic racing consciousness when he won a first-level allowance race at Laurel Park Jan. 22, his first start in almost a year.

Trained by Lacey Gaudet, the 4-year-old son of Malibu Moon and the Distorted Humor mare Fun Affair found his way into her barn thanks in part to her deep roots with his co-owners, Five Hellions Farm. When Gaudet launched her stable in 2007, Five Hellions was among her first clients. The stable owned her second winner, Big Cat Walks Late.

"They gave me a little bit of an opportunity early on," said Gaudet, daughter of trainers Eddie (who died in 2018) and Linda. "They've had some other trainers over the years, but about three years ago, Ned Williams and Mike Matese, the main guys in the group, they had some horses at Fair Hill and wanted them closer to the track."

Gaudet, stabled at Laurel Park, linked back up with them, and enjoyed success with Dontletsweetfoolya, who won five races in a row in 2020 including two stakes.

"They're great guys." said Gaudet. "Ned loves to breed, he always has a nice broodmare or two. They love to come out to the track and spend time around the horses, around the people. It's been a fun road."

One of their bloodstock agents, Mike Mulligan, found H P Moon at the 2020 Fasig-Tipton selected yearling showcase sale in Kentucky.

"He gathered that he'd be a little more expensive than [Five Hellions or co-owner KEM Stables] wanted to spend on their own, so he linked the groups together and helped acquire the horse for both of them," said Gaudet of the $100,000 purchase.

The partnership nearly turned a fast profit, but the Kentucky-bred returned as a $385,000 RNA at Fasig-Tipton's 2-year-old sale in Florida the following March. In the spring, H P Moon joined Gaudet's string at Delaware Park, where she had relocated following the closure of Laurel Park's main track.

"We knew we didn't want to screw this up, so we decided to move to Delaware," she said. "It gave us an opportunity to get more of these 2-year-olds and not bring them to a place that was getting ready to shut down due to all the issues. He was on the farm for a few weeks, and then he came directly to us. We were really excited to get him in."

As the spring progressed, H P Moon began to mature and blossom.

"He was a tough [horse], and I knew it was gonna be hard to harness this energy," said Gaudet. "Once one of my assistants, Lia McGuirk, came along, that was a key point of getting him to wrap his brain around his work. She was a huge part of developing the horse. Once he got his routine under him, he began to shine."

Soon, the ridgling was the talk of the Delaware backstretch, and his crew began thinking about his debut. They aimed high, to the Valhalla of 2-year-old racing – Saratoga.

"If he ran well there, it would have been a few weeks between then and the Hopeful-G1, so it would've set him up well for that spot and spots down the road," said Gaudet, who entered her regional rookie in a 5½-furlong maiden special weight July 31 – only to be denied the chance to run.

"When he came to us, he had a few spots on his shoulder," said Gaudet. "A lot of these horses, when they go through the sales, get some kind of skin disease, but a lot of them work through it. Well, he had scars from it, and he has very thin, sensitive skin. Initially, we were worried about taking him to New York, because of their identification process."

JIM MCCUE

Scratched prior to a planned debut at Saratoga in July 2021, H P Moon won his first start at Pimlico in August and returned to the winner's circle in January at Laurel Park.

Gaudet made phone calls, explained the white marks and detailed the identification steps already taken at Delaware Park. New York's horse identifier noticed white markings on a heel that were not listed on his Jockey Club papers and H P Moon was scratched while on the track before the race.

Gaudet thought about another try at Saratoga, but didn't want to debut in a 7-furlong race. H P Moon went back to the Mid-Atlantic and won as the 2-5 favorite at Pimlico Aug. 21. He shook off pace pressure and drew off to win by 9¾ lengths. The win reignited the imagination, but his season ended with an ankle chip.

Early in 2022, H P Moon was set to begin his 3-year-old season, and was cross-entered in Laurel's Spectacular Bid Stakes and Aqueduct's Jimmy Winkfield Stakes. Gaudet opted for the former spot Jan. 29. "It was home, it was seven-eighths, we wanted to see if we could stretch out a little bit." Sent off as the 11-10 favorite in a field full of stakes performers (all seven rivals are now either stakes winners or stakes-placed), H P Moon went straight to the front and flattened out late. He finished sixth, 14½ lengths behind the victorious Witty.

"In hindsight, going into his maiden race, he had worked a ton, he had so many miles underneath him." Gaudet said. "Being in a little bit of a hurry to start his 3-year-old campaign, we maybe rushed him into that race. It was also a deep winter track, we had some weather that week, and it wasn't quite favoring him."

H P Moon returned to the worktab not long afterward, but quickly went back to the sidelines.

"We got one or two more works into him, and he got a small tear in his left front suspensory," said Gaudet. "Probably another horse, we would've just retired him, but he was so young, and we had great surgeons working on him. We did PRP and some other procedures on him, and just gave him adequate time."

In November, H P Moon recorded his first workouts since the winter as he prepared for his comeback.

"It's been a big hold-your-breath moment all the way up to the race to see if he could sustain it," Gaudet said. "Luckily, we've had a decent winter here. The original plan was to go south, but the track at Laurel has been very good and very consistent this winter, and it's kept him on course. We really took our time with him and let him tell us what he was ready for."

Despite the long layoff, H P Moon went off as the even-money favorite against six others. He broke on top for Jevian Toledo, set an uncontested pace, and held a clear lead into the stretch. Magic Mule cut into the margin late, but the wire came in time as H P Moon held on to win by a nose in 1:12.89 for 6 furlongs over a slow track.

> "As long as he shows us he's happy and healthy, and continues to get over there in good order, he'll try at whatever we ask of him."
> – Trainer Lacey Gaudet, about H P Moon

"With the rain, the track got slower and deeper as the day went on, and you had some very slow times," Gaudet said. "If he was on a tighter, faster track, I don't think anyone would've come to him, but he was still game in victory. I don't think H P was going to let him by. It doesn't matter what caliber of horse you are, it's tough to come back off of a long layoff."

Plenty of work went into getting the horse, whose dam is a half-sister to champion and sire West Coast, to the races and, with H P Moon finally back on track after so many stops and starts, Gaudet is excited about his future.

"We have a lot of people to take into consideration with him," Gaudet said. "All the owners are always up-to-date and in the mix on what's going on. We'd like to keep him around 6 furlongs for now, to make sure he can excel at that, then try to stretch him out. As long as he shows us he's happy and healthy, and continues to get over there in good order, he'll try at whatever we ask of him."

Laurel Park notes

The first two Maryland-bred stakes races of the year were held Jan. 21. Plot the Dots came from off the pace to win the Jennings for his first stakes win. The 6-year-old gelding was bred by The Elkstone Group and was claimed by owner/trainer Lynn Cash for $40,000 Oct. 13. The son of Uncle Mo has a record of 8-6-4 from 34 starts with earnings of $443,846. Jevian Toledo had the winning mount.

One race later, Award Wanted came up the inside to upset odds-on choice Malibu Beauty and become a stakes winner in the Geisha. Last year, she won four times from 11 starts for earnings of $174,503 and improved to 9-7-5 from 31 starts lifetime while bankrolling $350,450. No Guts No Glory Farm and Erica Upton claimed the winner for $16,000 in February 2021 from breeder Dr. Alexandro Rubim Dias.

No Guts No Glory and trainer Jerry Robb enjoyed more success later in the afternoon, when 2022 Maryland-bred Horse of the Year Fille d'Esprit won the What a Summer going away under Xavier Perez over odds-on choice Swayin to and Fro. Last year, Fille d'Esprit won five stakes from 13 starts, with three coming on the Laurel main track. She was bred by Sweet Spirits Stables, who campaigned her before she was claimed by No Guts No Glory for $10,000 in August 2020.

Laurel-based Factor It In, trained by Carlos Mancilla for Michael Scheffres, took the Fire Plug by 2 lengths as the 7-10 favorite. The gray 7-year-old son of The Factor has three stakes wins in his last five starts, all at Laurel – the other two times he was third in graded stakes at Aqueduct last fall.

Brittany Russell trainees swept both 3-year-old stakes on the Jan. 21 program. L Street Lady won the Xtra Heat by 2¼ lengths after stalking the pacesetting favorite Chickieness. Toledo had the mount for Madaket Stables. Prince of Jericho, second behind Coffeewithchris in the Heft Dec. 30, turned the tables with a 4-length win over that rival in the Spectacular Bid. He improved to 3-1-1 from five starts (all at Laurel). He's owned by Michael Dubb and Morris Bailey and was ridden by Carol Cedeno.

Trainer Phil Capuano won his first two races in Maryland Jan. 14. He sent Imagine a Cure to victory in the second race for owner Louis Ulman, then won the eighth with Steven Newby's Vance Scholars. Phil took over his uncle Dale's stable at the start of 2023 and had won eight races from 20 starts through Feb. 5. He got his first career win at Charles Town Jan. 13 with Thunderturtle.

Kevin Gomez, out since Oct. 21 with a broken collarbone, returned to the races Jan. 6 and was back in the winner's circle Jan. 14 aboard Russell trainee Late Night Larry for SAB Stable. ■

March – No Spring Break

March, it is said, comes in like a lion and goes out like a lamb. On a large Thoroughbred farm it comes in with an early morning foaling and goes out with a late night one. March and April are the Scylla and Charybdis of the breeding season, twin monsters that must be navigated to reach the calmer waters of May. This is when the bulk of foalings occur; if you are going to foal 60 mares, 35 of them will deliver in these two months.

Of course, while this is going on in the middle of the night, in the daylight all hands are hard at it preparing mares for trips to the breeding shed with eyes toward next year. The van gets a workout and the van driver does also.

With this in mind, save some praise for one of the most overworked and underappreciated members of the farm staff – the teaser. As most know, the teaser is usually an entire male horse or pony on a farm for the sole purpose of being exposed to broodmares in order to determine their readiness for breeding. When a mare is ready, she will submit to being nuzzled and nipped by a male horse and demonstrate her readiness by striking a submissive pose and urinating. The teaser is then led away to the next mare and the process is repeated. Unfortunately for the teaser he is always a best man and never the groom.

I have heard of farms where the farm manager carries around a recording of the low, guttural noises that a stallion makes prior to covering a mare. This apparently is enough to stimulate the mares. In our later years at the farm when we were only breeding a handful of mares, we used a gelding and sprinkled sweet feed on the mare's rump.

When our children were in the early grades at school, we would always invite their classes to come to the farm in March to see the newborn foals and their mothers. The young mothers of the class would often accompany the children and they were always fascinated by the work of the teaser. The children would squeal with delight at the antics of the foals in their paddocks and the mothers kept asking for more details of the teasing operation. I'll leave further speculation to the reader.

Every day, the teaser makes his rounds and the farm manager makes a list of mares to be examined by the veterinarian who, at this time of year, visits the farm almost every day. He, or often she, performs a rectal exam to examine the ovaries for the presence of follicular activity indicating an eminent ovulation. The trick to successful pregnancy is to have semen in the mare at the time of ovulation. The successful veterinarian is adept at predicting this moment a day or two ahead so the breeder can schedule a trip to visit the stallion which has been chosen as this mare's mate.

For a number of years in the 1980s we stood stallions at Charlton. The horses were Rise Jim (1976, Jim J.—Stellen, by Hill Rise) and Ringside (1980, Sir Ivor—Middle Cornish, by Speak John). These were good, stakes-winning, fast horses but we struggled to attract mares. Realizing that stallion promotion was not our forte, we sent Rise Jim back to Massachusetts, the land of his birth, and we sold Ringside to stand in British Columbia. Standing stallions is hard work, but attracting mares is the real challenge. After the stallions left, we concentrated our efforts on breeding, foaling and raising, and selling the foals.

In March, the short yearlings are, mostly, living outside in sheds. In the Irish tradition we separated the colts from the fillies on St. Patrick's Day. Around this time of year, the specter of a 2-year-old filly that delivered a filly in her stall at Philadelphia Park is often in the back of one's mind.

But March is really about foaling. In our busiest years we had a wonderful night watchman, Jose Trejo Reyes. He worked six nights a week from 11 p.m. to 7 a.m. On his off night the role fell to Dixie and me as it had in our early years when we would split the nights with her relieving me at 3 a.m.

Typically, Jose would call us when the mare's water broke, and we would be in the barn in about two minutes. Attending a foaling is an emotional rollercoaster: anxiety, helplessness, fear, uncertainty, joy and disappointment all compete for your attention. You want to be doing something when staying outside the stall is often the best course. When two feet appear your breathing returns to normal and when you see the nose you're halfway home.

Mares are creatures of habit and if you foal a mare year after year you begin to recognize the pattern. We had mares that would never lie down to foal. In those cases someone had to be alert to catch the emerging foal before it hit the ground with a thud. Other mares would always foal during the day when out in their paddocks. We loved these mares because outside foalings are cleaner with no drenched stall to clean and daytime foaling meant one less 2 a.m. call from Jose.

Once the foal is safely on the ground and given a vigorous rubbing, the next step is to be sure that it gets a healthy dose of colostrum. This is the mare's first milk that imparts the antibodies to her foal's immune system. For many years we did this by helping the foal to its feet and then waiting and watching for the foal to nurse from its mother's udder. Fifteen years ago, at the behest of our veterinarian, Dr. John Lee, we began to milk about 10 ounces of colostrum out of the mare, check to make sure it was sufficiently nutrient rich, and administer it by bottle as soon as the foal demonstrated a strong suck reflex. This process may have been more for the benefit of the attendants, but it was reassuring to have a foal with a belly full of milk before it even stood up and avoided the stress of trying to get an unsteady foal to go to the udder.

Next, an enema was administered to encourage the passing of meconium and then the mare and foal would be left alone to get to know each other. With a good night man like Jose, Dixie and I, after about two hours, could return to bed and he would call us if he wasn't happy with either mare or foal. If he was unhappy with the mare it would be my responsibility, but if it was the foal Dixie would jump into action.

This process was repeated approximately every other night from February to May. On some nights we would be foaling one mare when another went into labor. On other nights we would just get back to sleep when another's water would break.

On nights when you walked back to the house as dawn was breaking, you truly knew whether you really wanted to be in the horse business. We did. ■

Fille d'Esprit

2022 Maryland-bred Horse of the Year
Champion Older Female
Champion Sprinter

B.m., 2016, by Great Notion—Sweet Valor, by No Armistice. Bred by Sweet Spirits Stables. Owned by C J I Phoenix Group and No Guts No Glory Farm. Trained by John J. Robb. Foaled at Country Roads, Warwick.

$150,000 Seeking the Pearl
$100,000 Maryland Million Distaff
$100,000 Susquehanna Valley
$75,000 Conniver $75,000 Politely

In the modern era of racing, there's much discussion and hand-wringing over the schedules, or lack thereof, of racing's top horses. Where, people ask, are the great iron horses of yesteryear, who would show up every few weeks, and turn in great performances time after time?

One can be found in Maryland. Fille d'Esprit, a $10,000 claim in August 2020, had a busy season in 2022 for C J I Phoenix Group and No Guts No Glory Farm. The Jerry Robb-trained mare made 13 starts, all in stakes company, at six racetracks. She won five stakes, including the Conniver, Maryland Million Distaff and Politely at her home base of Laurel Park. She also won the Susquehanna Valley at Penn National and the Seeking the Pearl at Colonial Downs and was stakes-placed an additional five times at Laurel, Pimlico, Charles Town and Parx. For her exploits, she was rewarded with the title of 2022 Maryland-bred Horse of the Year.

She's the 16th filly or mare to win the title, joining Miss Spin (1965), Politely (1967-68), Alma North (1971), Twixt (1973-74), What a Summer (1977), Jameela (1981-82), Squan Song (1985), Safely Kept (1989-1990), Wide Country (1991), Brilliant Brass (1992), Tenski (1998), Gin Talking (2000), Shine Again (2003), Cathryn Sophia (2016) and Sharing (2019). The daughter of Northview Stallion Station's Great Notion is the first Maryland-sired horse to capture the state's Horse of the Year title since Ben's Cat, who won the award from 2011-14.

Despite not racing until age 4 in 2020, Fille d'Esprit showed an early affection for the Laurel main track. For breeders Jim and Gail Poulos and trainer Christy Claggett, the bay filly finished fifth in her debut June 6 and won her next two. Robb claimed her for $10,000 out of that second win, and risked her for that price in two subsequent starts – a second at Pimlico and the first of four consecutive wins at Laurel to wrap up 2020. After missing most of the 2021 season, she capped that year with back-to-back wins at Laurel. In total, 12 of her 14 wins (through Feb. 17) have come at Laurel.

Fille d'Esprit is bred in the same pattern as another Robb-trained sprinting star, Anna's Bandit. Both are daughters of Great Notion and No Armistice mares – Onearmedbandit for Anna's Bandit, Sweet Valor for Fille d'Esprit. ❧

Post Time

2022 Maryland-bred Champion 2-Year-Old Male

Gr./ro.c., 2020, Frosted—Vielsalm, by Fairbanks. Bred by Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Bowman, Dr. Brooke Bowman and Milton Higgins III. Owned by Hillwood Stable. Trained by Brittany Russell. Foaled at Dance Forth at Roland, Warwick.

$100,000 Maryland Juvenile Championship

Jim McCue

Post Time rolled through Laurel Park last fall. He won all three starts there by a combined 12½ lengths, defeating stakes winners Prince of Jericho, Coffeewithchris and Johnyz From Albany along the way.

His first two starts were marked by his eccentricities as much as his ability. He broke his maiden going away at Laurel Oct. 7, then won a first-level allowance Oct. 27. Both times, he drifted out in the stretch, but was kept to task by Eric Camacho. An exercise rider for Brittany Russell, Camacho had ridden more than 1,000 winners but rode only one race between 2017 and Post Time's debut.

The colt's final start of the year came in the Dec. 3 Maryland Juvenile Championship Stakes. This time, he kept a straight course in the stretch and mowed down his rivals, with Camacho barely asking for run. He hit the wire 3¾ lengths in front to cap his championship campaign.

Post Time's pedigree goes back to multiple generations of mares bred by the Bowmans and Higgins. His third dam, the unraced Satin Lilly (Affirmed), was purchased by Higgins for $4,000 as a 10-year-old broodmare at Keeneland January in 1993. Her first foal for the Bowmans, Calla Lily (Local Talent), won five races for owner/trainer Dickie Small. Next came Merriweather (Opening Verse). She never made it to the races, but produced 10 winners from 13 starters. The most successful was Vielsalm, a graded stakes-placed six-figure earner and the dam of Post Time. She was not bred for 2023 but will go to Nyquist for 2024. ❧

Malibu Moonshine

2022 Maryland-bred Champion 2-Year-Old Filly

Ch.f., 2020, Bourbon Courage—Sunday in Malibu, by Malibu Moon. Bred by Dr. Ronald Harris Parker. Owned by Happy Face Racing Stable. Trained by Charlton Baker. Foaled at Shamrock Farm, Woodbine.

$100,000 Gin Talking

$100,000 Maryland Juvenile Fillies Championship

Jim McCue

It took a lot of traveling up and down I-95, but Malibu Moonshine, based in New York with trainer Charlie Baker, enjoyed a perfect debut season with three wins at Maryland tracks, including two stakes wins at Laurel Park.

She broke her maiden impressively at Pimlico in a sea of slop Sept. 11, and loomed as one of the favorites for the Maryland Million Lassie Oct. 22 when she was scratched the morning of the race due to illness. Undeterred, she returned with a 2-length come-from-behind win in the Maryland Juvenile Filly Championship Stakes Dec. 3. Her next start, the Dec. 30 Gin Talking, marked another class test, as it was her first open-company stakes appearance. She handled it with aplomb, as she rallied up the inside to win by 1¾ lengths to affirm her status as the top state-bred 2-year-old filly.

Bred by Dr. Ronald Harris Parker, Malibu Moonshine returned a $97,000 RNA at the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic 2-year-old sale in 2022 and was sold privately to Happy Face Racing Stable.

Her stakes wins capped off a strong year for her sire, Anchor and Hope Farm's Bourbon Courage. She was one of four stakes winners for him in 2022, along with Double Crown, Bourbon Bon Bay and Fortheluvofbourbon. Malibu Moonshine's dam, Sunday in Malibu, has produced seven winners from as many starters, including stakes-placed runners Faze the Nation (Cal Nation) and Malibu Moonshine's full sister Maxine's Tap Room. Sunday in Malibu has a yearling named Malibu Hooch, another full-sister to Malibu Moonshine, and was bred back to Bourbon Courage for 2023. ❧

Joe

2022 Maryland-bred Champion 3-Year-Old Male

B.c., 2019, Declaration of War—Battle Bridge, by Arch.
Bred and owned by The Elkstone Group. Trained by Mike Trombetta.
Foaled at C-Dog Farm, Chesapeake City.

$125,000 Federico Tesio
$100,000 James W. Murphy
2nd Private Terms

Jim McCue

With his 3-year-old championship, Joe made some history. He's the 11th horse to be named champion Maryland-bred 2-year-old male and 3-year-old male, and the second consecutive following Jaxon Traveler.

The homebred colt, named for owner/breeder Stuart Grant's friend President Joe Biden, started his season with a first-level allowance optional claiming win at Laurel Park Jan. 23. Following a second in the March 19 Private Terms Stakes, Joe called on his heart and class in his next two starts. He won the Federico Tesio Stakes April 16, fending off a stretch challenge from stablemate Mr Jefferson to prevail by a head. The win earned Joe a spot in the Preakness Stakes-G1, but his connections opted for a try on turf in the James W. Murphy Stakes on the undercard. Once again, he had to fight, battling through the Pimlico stretch with favored Ready to Purr-form. Ultimately, Joe won by a neck before missing the rest of the season with an injury.

Grant purchased Joe's dam, Battle Bridge, for $55,000 as a broodmare prospect at the Fasig-Tipton summer selected horses of racing age sale in 2013. Her first foal, Irony of Reality (Animal Kingdom), placed in three stakes for Grant before selling (in foal to Mshawish) for $35,000 at Keeneland November in 2021. Battle Bridge, meanwhile, sold for $26,000 at the same sale while in foal to War of Will. Her War of Will filly brought $165,000 as a weanling at Keeneland November in 2022. ❧

Luna Belle

2022 Maryland-bred Champion 3-Year-Old Filly

B.f., 2019, Great Notion—Heavenly Moon, by Mojave Moon.
Bred by Fred Greene Jr., Deborah Greene and Hamilton Smith.
Owned by Deborah Greene and Hamilton Smith.
Trained by Hamilton Smith. Foaled at Willowdale Farm, Butler.

$125,000 Weber City Miss
$100,000 Beyond The Wire
$100,000 Wide Country
$100,000 Xtra Heat

Jim McCue

Luna Belle took the Maryland racing world by storm last year, sweeping through every stakes for 3-year-old fillies at the winter and spring meets at Laurel Park for trainer and co-breeder/owner Hamilton Smith. She won those stakes by a combined 17 lengths while paying an average of $2.70 to win, signifying total dominance over her rivals. Among Maryland-breds, only Fille d'Esprit won more 2022 stakes races than Luna Belle's four. Luna Belle became the 13th horse to be named champion Maryland-bred 2-year-old filly and 3-year-old filly.

Luna Belle was the last foal Fred Greene Jr., a longtime owner and breeder, saw before he passed away in August 2020. Greene purchased Luna Belle's granddam, I'm in Heaven, for $45,000 at the 1997 OBS open selected sale of 2-year-olds, and won the Toddler Stakes at Laurel Park later that year with her. Smith trained Luna Belle's dam, Heavenly Moon, through a 40-start career which included a 5-11-7 record and $196,540 earned. Heavenly Moon has also produced the stakes-placed Moon Virginia (Jump Start) and The Poser (Bandbox) and was bred back to Great Notion for 2023.

Luna Belle's winning streak ended with a well-beaten 11th in the Black-Eyed Susan-G2 at Pimlico, though she was eyeing a return to the races in 2023. ❧

Whereshetoldmetogo

2022 Maryland-bred Champion Older Male

Ch.g., 2015, El Padrino—Undisputed Legend, by Domestic Dispute. Bred by David Wade. Owned by Madaket Stables, Ten Strike Racing, Michael Kisber and BTR Racing. Trained by Brittany Russell. Foaled at Sycamore Hall, Chesapeake City.

$100,000 Alapocas Run
$100,000 New Castle
$75,000 Not For Love

Jim McCue

A stakes winner at ages 2, 3, 5, 6 and 7, Whereshetoldmetogo had accomplished plenty in his 37-race career, but had yet to take home a Maryland-bred championship. That changed, as in the final season, he parlayed three stakes victories into a year-end title.

All three wins were his second consecutive victories in those respective races. He started his season with a victory in the March 18 Not For Love Stakes, collaring Jaxon Traveler late and getting up to win by three-quarters of a length. On July 2, he captured the Alapocas Run Stakes at Delaware Park by 2¾ lengths, followed by a determined victory in the New Castle Stakes at the same track Sept. 30.

Whereshetoldmetogo loved Delaware; he broke his maiden there at first asking in June 2017 and went 7-3-0 in 10 starts. A second there Oct. 29 proved to be his career finale. He was entered for a repeat bid in the Howard and Sondra Bender Memorial Stakes Nov. 25 but was scratched the morning of the race and retired a few days later. He resides with Dr. Allison Marshall in Mechanicsville, Va., and is beginning preparations for his second career.

Whereshetoldmetogo was bred by David Wade, general manager of Northview Stallion Station and Sycamore Hall Farm. Wade bred Whereshetoldmetogo's dam, Undisputed Legend, in partnership with William Fitzgibbons Sr. who raced her dam Lunar's Legend (four wins in 17 starts). Both went on to broodmare success.

Lunar's Legend produced eight winners, led by stakes winners Amie's Legend and Celestial Legend. Undisputed Legend won once in 11 starts, but has produced seven winners. Her 2021 Mendelssohn colt brought $145,000 as a yearling and she most recently produced a Vekoma filly (in 2022). She is due to Mendelssohn for 2023. ❧

Field Pass

2022 Maryland-bred Champion Turf Horse

Gr./ro.h., 2017, by Lemon Drop Kid—Only Me, by Runaway Groom. Bred by Mark Brown Grier. Owned by Three Diamonds Farm. Trained by Mike Maker. Foaled at Dance Forth at Roland, Warwick.

$300,000 Texas Turf Classic
3rd Arlington-G3, Henry S. Clark

Field Pass achieved a career milestone in the July 16 Texas Turf Classic at Lone Star Park. He crossed the wire second, but was elevated to first following a disqualification, and in the process became the 28th Maryland-bred millionaire.

In addition to his Texas Turf Classic win, Field Pass finished third in the Henry S. Clark Stakes at Laurel Park April 23 and the Arlington Stakes-G3 at Churchill Downs June 4. This is his third year-end title; he was also named champion 3-year-old male of 2020 and champion turf horse of 2021. He's the seventh horse to win multiple titles as the top Maryland-bred turf horse, joining Mister Diz, Ten Keys, Awad, Heros Reward, Ben's Cat and Sharing.

Field Pass was bred by New Jersey resident Mark Grier, who sold the horse for $37,000 at the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic yearling sale in 2018. Grier campaigned Field Pass' dam, Only Me, who won eight times from 29 starts and produced two named foals. The other, You Must Chill (Winchill), won the 2021 Alphabet Soup Handicap at Parx. Only Me has since retired from breeding. ❧

Who's Counting

2022 Maryland-bred Champion Steeplechaser

B.g., 2018, Vancouver (Aus)—Counter Measure, by Henrythenavigator. Bred and owned by South Branch Equine. Trained by Sean McDermott. Foaled at Cordelia Stables, Street.

2nd Harry E. Harris Hurdle, Sport of Kings Hurdle

Tod Marks

Although strictly a flat horse as a 3-year-old in 2021, Who's Counting caught on quickly in his rookie season as a steeplechaser. He won twice over jumps in 2022 and was stakes-placed in a pair of stakes to capture the title as the champion Maryland-bred steeplechaser.

Who's Counting won his steeplechase debut in a $20,000 maiden claimer at Glenwood Park at Middleburg, Va., April 23, and was second by a length next out in a 4-year-old stakes at Great Meadow, also in Virginia, May 7.

After two starts on the flat, a second in allowance company at Laurel Park in June and a starter-allowance win at Colonial Downs in July, he returned to steeplechasing and won handicap race at Colonial in August–a fairly unique flat/jump double at the Virginia track. He capped his season with a third in allowance hurdle company at Saratoga and another second in a 4-year-old hurdle stakes at Far Hills in New Jersey. In the latter, he rallied from last of six to come up a half-length short.

Who's Counting was ridden by his trainer, Sean McDermott, in his steeplechase starts. A native of Ireland, McDermott has been a top jockey on the American jump circuit for years, twice leading all steeplechase riders in purse earnings. He began training in 2020, winning his first race in July 2021 at Pimlico.

The Kinsley family's South Branch Equine bred and campaigns Who's Counting. His dam, the unraced Counter Measure, was purchased by South Branch for $60,000 at the 2014 Keeneland November Sale. In addition to Who's Counting, she produced the winning Cape Blanco (Ire) gelding Three Pillars. ❧

2022 MHBA Stallion of the Year: GREAT NOTION

Just when it appeared Great Notion had reached the highest of heights, he surpassed it with his best year as a stallion in 2022. With $4.6 million in progeny earnings (more than $1.5 million ahead of the second-ranked stallion) and as sire of six stakes winners, including 2022 Maryland-bred Horse of the Year Fille d'Esprit and 3-year-old champion filly Luna Belle, Great Notion gets his seventh consecutive Stallion of the Year award.

Great Notion, now 23, has stood his entire career at Northview Stallion Station in Chesapeake City. Only one other stallion has more titles since the awards were first presented in 1986 – Northview stablemate Not For Love, who ruled for 13 years before Great Notion took over in 2016.

2022 MHBA Broodmare of the Year: SLOW AND STEADY

ZWP Stable and Non Stop Stable's Slow and Steady has been a steady stream of stakes performers, producing seven from 10 runners. In 2022, her 4-year-old daughter Malibu Beauty (by Buffum) captured three stakes and placed in two others in eight starts, and her next foal, 2-year-old filly Fast Tracked (Cross Traffic), was second in the Maryland Juvenile Filly Championship.

Foard Wilgis and Dave Picarello of ZWP Stable bought Slow and Steady from their trainer Gary Capuano (Non Stop Stable) after Capuano plucked the yearling filly from the first crop of then Maryland-based Malibu Moon out of the 2002 Midlantic December mixed sale, paying $14,500.

"I really liked the way she looked," said Capuano, "and I liked Malibu Moon and the Cure the Blues side of the mare."

A solid allowance winner of $123,510, Slow and Steady delivered her first foal in 2007 at age 6.

Of her 11 foals of racing age through 2022, 10 are winners. She is also the dam of 2010 Maryland-bred juvenile champion Steady Warrior, stakes winner Steady N Love (dam of stakes winner Shackled Love) and stakes-placed Lucky in Malibu, Hanky Doodle and Who Dat Boy. Her foals average $181,017 in earnings.

This is the second Broodmare of the Year award for ZWP Stable, after Cherokee Wonder, dam of their millionaire Cherokee's Boy, received the honor in 2005.

2022 MHBA Breeder of the Year: DR. & MRS. THOMAS BOWMAN

Tom and Chris Bowman topped the 2022 standings in all categories when it came to Maryland-bred runners produced in their name and those in partnership.

Led by graded stakes winner Double Crown (bred in partnership with their daughter Becky Davis), their runners made 528 starts, recorded 94 wins (and were second or third in 133 others) and earned $3,821,060. Seven were stakes winners.

Despite the high volume of starts, Bowman-breds also had highest average earnings per start ($7,237) among the top 10 breeders by total earnings.

Foals are born at the Bowmans' Dance Forth Farm in Chestertown, or at the Dance Forth at Roland Annex in Warwick.

Other stakes winners bred in partnership were Maryland-bred champion Post Time (with son Dr. Brooke Bowman and longtime partner Milton Higgins), Alottahope, Alwaysinahurry, Divine Huntress and Local Motive.

This is the Bowmans' 10th Breeder of the Year award – only Robert Meyerhoff has been recognized more (with 11). The Bowmans were also honored in 1998, 2005-08, 2011, 2012, 2014 and 2015.

2022 MTHA Awards

The Maryland Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association board of directors presents several annual awards honoring horses and people based in the state as part of the Renaissance Awards, a cooperative effort between the MTHA and Maryland Horse Breeders Association.

Trainer: BRITTANY RUSSELL

Since launching her training career five years ago, Russell has ascended to the pinnacle of the Maryland training ranks. Her 2022 season was rewarded with her second consecutive Renaissance Award for Maryland's top trainer. Russell set career-highs in wins (100) and purse earnings ($4,373,996) in 2022. Seventy-four wins and $3,192,656 came at Maryland tracks. She captured the Laurel Park spring title with 14 wins and the fall title with 29. She won seven races at the Pimlico spring meet to tie Richard Sillaman. Russell trained a pair of Maryland-bred champions: 2-year-old male Post Time and top older male Whereshetoldmetogo. In addition, she trained two other Maryland stakes winners, Hybrid Eclipse and Wondrwherecraigis.

Owner: R. LARRY JOHNSON

Johnson's stable enjoyed great success in 2022. He set a career-high in earnings with $1,559,253, and won 26 races, 18 of which came in Maryland. Johnson took a pair of stakes races in Maryland – the King Leatherbury in April with True Valour (Ire), and the Jameela with Spun Glass, MTHA's Maryland Female Turf Horse of the Year. In addition, Johnson, along with co-owner R.D.M. Racing Stable, won the Maryland Million Turf Sprint with his homebred Sky's Not Falling. The victory was Johnson's third Maryland Million win as a part or sole owner, along with Doing Great in the 2010 Lassie and My Magician in the 2014 Lassie.

Jockey: JEVIAN TOLEDO

Toledo won his fourth Maryland riding title in 2022, setting career-highs in wins (145) and purse earnings ($5,700,307). He won the Laurel Park winter title with 37 wins and tied for the lead in the summer standings with 31. He also captured the riding title at the Pimlico spring meet with 15 wins. Toledo won nine stakes in Maryland in 2022, eclipsing his 2021 total by one. He won a pair April 16, the Frank Whiteley aboard Disco Pharoah and the Heavenly Cause with Pennybaker. In total, Toledo won 188 races in 2022, beating his previous high, set in 2017, by one. He also set a career-high in purse earnings with $7,739,789, and rode stakes winners at Delaware Park, Charles Town and Gulfstream Park.

Pimlico Backstretch Employee: RICARDO MARTINEZ

Martinez came to Maryland in 2007 and originally worked for Ferris Allen. A year later, the 38-year-old native of Mexico transferred to the Kieron Magee barn, and has become an important part of the team. "Everybody works as a team here," Martinez said. "What I really like is bringing horses to the races and then watching them win. Then you know that all the hard work has paid off."

Laurel Park Backstretch Employee: MARTIN HAIBER

Haiber has spent all his 61 years around horses. He was first licensed by the Maryland Racing Commission in 1980 and was a jockey from 1987 to 1994. He's worked for numerous trainers over the years and has been a hot walker for Rodney Jenkins for the last seven years. "What's important to me is just being around horses," said Haiber. "I'd like to say 'thank you' to Eveline (Kjelstrup, Jenkins's assistant) and Mr. Jenkins."

Maryland Male Dirt Horse of the Year: CORDMAKER

The Maryland-bred veteran, trained by Rodney Jenkins for Hillwood Stable, picked up a pair of career milestones in 2022. At Laurel Park Feb. 19, he won the General George Stakes-G3 at Laurel for his first graded stakes victory. After taking most of the year off, Cordmaker returned to the races in November and became the 29th Maryland-bred millionaire when he finished third in the Richard Small Stakes at Laurel.

Maryland Male Turf Horse of the Year: ENGLISH TAVERN

Trained by Hamilton Smith, also co-owner with Jerry Romans Jr. and Franklin "Goree" Smith Sr., English Tavern won two high-profile allowance/optional claiming races at Pimlico last year. On Black-Eyed Susan Day, May 20, he was dismissed at 13-1 and rallied up the rail to win. In September, he entered a stakes-quality race at a mile on the Pimlico turf. The field featured three graded stakes winners: Decorated Invader, Wootton Asset (Fr) and Fancy Liquor, along with stakes winners Hard Love, So Street and Nick Papagiorgio. Sent off as the slight 2-1 favorite, English Tavern rallied four wide on the turn and got up to win by a nose over Decorated Invader.

Maryland Female Dirt Horse of the Year: LUNA BELLE

Luna Belle dominated the Laurel 3-year-old filly stakes this year, sweeping her way to the title of both champion Maryland-bred 3-year-old filly and Maryland-based female dirt horse for Deborah Greene and trainer/co-owner Hamilton Smith. See Maryland-bred champions section for more.

Maryland Female Turf Horse of the Year: SPUN GLASS

Spun Glass won twice in Maryland in 2022 – taking an allowance at Laurel Park June 5 and becoming a stakes winner two starts later in the Jameela Stakes July 30. Trained by Mike Trombetta for Larry Johnson, she added to her resume next out when she won the Camptown Stakes at Colonial Downs Sept. 7. Spun Glass is a third-generation homebred for Johnson, who purchased her granddam, Grecian Wings, in 2005. Spun Glass' dam, Allwewantforxmas placed in two stakes and has produced four winners from as many starters.

Maryland Claimer of the Year: EASTERN BAY

Owner/trainer Norman "Lynn" Cash is no stranger to the claiming game, and he made an especially astute choice April 3 at Laurel Park when he claimed Eastern Bay for $35,000 out of an allowance optional claiming win. Under Cash's care, Eastern Bay captured three allowance/optional claiming contests in Maryland and placed in three out-of-town stakes including the Vosburgh-G2 and the Bold Ruler-G3 at Aqueduct.

Award Wanted

Geisha Stakes
$75,000-guaranteed, 1 mi., registered Maryland-bred or sired fillies and mares, 4 & up.
Laurel Park, Jan. 21.

B.m., 2017, by Macho Uno—Touring Hong Kong, by Cherokee's Boy. Bred by Dr. Alexandro Rubim Dias; owned by No Guts No Glory Farm and Erica Upton; trained by John J. Robb. Foaled at Northview Stallion Station, Chesapeake City, Md.

		Lifetime
starts	1st	2nd	3rd	earnings
31	9 (1)	7	5 (1)	$350,450 (through Jan. 21)

2021: 3rd Maryland Million Turf Distaff Starter H. 2023: 1st $75,000 Geisha S, 1 mi., registered Md.-bred or sired fillies and mares, 4 & up, Laurel, Jan. 21.

As Award Wanted galloped home by 5¾ lengths in the Geisha Stakes Jan. 21, she went from solid allowance mare to a stakes winner at age 6. And she became the second stakes winner bred by equine veteriniarian Dr. Alexandro Rubim Dias out of the mare Touring Hong Kong.

Rubim Dias' quest for an Eclipse Award, acquiring Touring Hong Kong, and having the first two foals out of his mare become stakes winners, is as improbable as a Hollywood script. After attending the 2015 Eclipse Awards, Rubim Dias has been on a mission to take home one of those special statues. But he realized there are few options for a vet to win an award, unless he had a horse.

Cue Touring Hong Kong.

The multiple stakes-placed mare by millionaire Cherokee's Boy was at Bowie, laid up with an injury after 40 starts. Her owner was looking to sell, then tried to give her away. Weeks went by and and Rubim Dias was called to put down the 5-year-old mare.

"She was in bad shape, was in a lot of pain. Putting her down was the humane thing to do if no one was going to properly take care of her," Rubim Dias said. "I walked into her stall with a syringe in my hand and she hopped from one corner of the stall to the other, where the feed tub was, and started eating desperately."

Rubim Dias knew he couldn't put her down. He called her owner and said if he still wanted to give her away, he would take her.

Rubim Dias contacted the Caseys at Taylor Mountain Farm in West Virginia, for whom he once worked, to ask about keeping her there, and they took her in. While recovering and stall-bound, the mare was bred to Windsor Castle.

"If bred, the hormones would help her heal," Rubim Dias said. "On one cover, she got in foal."

When ready to travel, Touring Hong Kong was moved to a farm in Maryland and delivered the following April.

"She took over a year to foal. He came out beautiful, big – I named him V. I. P. Ticket because I was hoping to get a ticket to the Eclipse Awards!"

Rubim Dias didn't get the ticket, but the colt delivered. He won or placed in four stakes, earned $310,195 and, recently retired, is a possible 2023 Thoroughbred Makeover participant.

Now that Rubim Dias was a breeder, he decided to give his mare every opportunity and sent her next to champion Macho Uno. The result was Award Wanted.

A winner of her debut as a 3-year-old in June 2020 at Delaware Park for Rubim Dias' A.R.D. Racing Stables and trainer Claudio Gonzalez, Award Wanted went winless in her next six outings. She was claimed for $16,000 out of a win Feb. 21, 2021, by Jerry Robb on behalf of No Guts No Glory Farm and Erica Upton.

Third in the Maryland Million Turf Distaff Starter Handicap that fall, she ran another 13 times in allowance and starter races, winning five, before tackling the Geisha, which improved her record to 9-7-5 from 31 starts, for earnings of $350,450.

Award Wanted continues to earn Rubim Dias money – between Maryland Fund and developer bonuses and Delaware- and Virginia-certified bonuses, the mare has earned her breeder nearly $200,000 since claimed.

Touring Hong Kong's third foal, winner Award Nominated (by Buffum), is getting ready to return to the races for his breeder after a layoff. Rubim Dias lost the mare's 2020 Klimt filly and 2021 Biblical colt last year; the 13-year-old mare has a yearling colt by Always Dreaming and is in foal to Bustin Stones. She resides at Rubim Dias' To Win Again Farm and V.I.P. Ticket Rehab Center in Woodbine.

Plot the Dots

Jennings Stakes
$75,000-guaranteed, 1 mi., registered Maryland-bred or sired, 4 & up.
Laurel Park, Jan. 21.

B.g., 2017, by Uncle Mo—Lady of Gold, by Medaglia d'Oro. Bred by The Elkstone Group; owned by Built Wright Stables; trained by Norman L. Cash. Foaled at C-Dog Farm, Chesapeake City, Md.

		Lifetime
starts	1st	2nd	3rd	earnings
34	8 (1)	6 (1)	4 (1)	$443,846 (through Feb. 5)

2022: 2nd Deputed Testamony S; 3rd Native Dancer S. 2023: 1st $75,000 Jennings S, 1 mi., registered Md.-bred or sired, 4 & up, Laurel, Jan. 21.

Plot the Dots became the first Maryland-bred stakes winner of 2023 when strolling home by 5 lengths in the Jennings Stakes Jan. 21. It also marked the 6-year-old's first stakes win.

One of three horses owned and trained by Norman "Lynn" Cash in the eight-horse field for Maryland-bred or -sired horses, Plot the Dots was the lowest-priced at 5-1.

Unhurried early in the 1-mile stakes as stablemate Monday Morning Qb (10-1) posted modest fractions, Plot the Dots battled even-money favorite Ournationonparade in the run to the wire before pulling clear in the final furlong. Stablemate Galerio rallied for second, with Ournationononparade third.

It was the eighth victory for Plot the Dots; 15 days later he returned to finish third in allowance company, pushing his earnings to $443,846 in 34 starts.

A son of Uncle Mo and Lady of Gold (Medaglia d'Oro) bred by Stuart Grant's The Elkstone Group, Plot the Dots first raced for his breeder and trainer Mike Trombetta. Unraced at 2, he won his second start at 3 in February 2020 and won twice more in 10 starts that year. At 4, Plot the Dots won once from six starts, while finishing no better than fourth in three stakes tries.

Risked for a tag the first time in February 2022, he was claimed by Claudio Gonzalez for $35,000 for Danny Chen. He won an optional claimer next out for $50,000 and followed with a third in the Native Dancer Stakes in April. After he captured an allowance in June, he placed second in the Deputed Testamony Stakes.

Ten starts after moving to Gonzalez's barn, Plot the Dots was taken by Cash for $40,000 Oct. 13. He won two of his first six for the new barn.

Plot the Dots is the first of two foals, both winners, for Lady of Gold, a multiple graded stakes-placed winner of $254,598 who raced for Grant.

Colonial Farm starts new chapter

By Bill Finley

Sam Fieramosca sold his 100-acre Colonial Farm to Carmine Spinella in February.

Conventional wisdom may be that the New Jersey breeding industry is a hard sell, but Carmine Spinella doesn't want to hear it. Some six months after selling his business, Pegasus Home Fashions, which manufactures pillows, Spinella has found a new investment and a new passion. In February, he purchased Colonial Farm from longtime owner Sam Fieramosca and plans on turning it into one of the top breeding farms in the Mid-Atlantic region.

"I want to build up this farm and build up the Jersey-bred program," he said. "That's my goal. I want to help the program take another step and be back to where it was 20 years ago."

The process is well under way. Working with advisor Cameron Beatty, who owned New Jersey-bred star Horologist, he has invested heavily in capital improvements at the farm, is actively looking to acquire a new stallion and has bolstered the number of mares living at the Colts Neck farm.

"I want to get this place back to where it was in its heyday," Beatty said. "I wasn't around for its heyday but want to make sure I'm around for what I think will be a bright future. I see what this place can be. I see what the Jersey-bred program can look like. I want people to put their trust back in the Jersey-bred program. It looks like that over the years the numbers have gone down and the trust has dwindled. Carmine and I are trying to see that that doesn't happen again. He's putting in a lot of time and effort into this and asked me to help. I want to see this place come back to life."

FOLLOW or LIKE NJBREDS on.

Colonial Farm opened in 1950 and was started by John Fieramosca. Fieramosca put his son Sam to work and 72 years later Sam Fieramosca was still operating Colonial before the sale to Spinella. Fieramosca will continue in racing on a small scale and will still have a few mares and some horses in training.

With the Jersey-bred program struggling, there were tough times for all the state's breeding operations and Colonial was no exception. In 1999, Fieramosca sold 70 of his 170 acres to developers, which, he said, was the only way he could afford to stay in business. The number of foals born each year continued to decline and Colonial often had no more than one stallion.

Things have gotten better. The state's racing and breeding programs get a $10 million annual supplement from the state, which has helped make Jersey-bred allowance races go for as much as $75,000. Colonial is also home to a young and promising stallion in Sea Wizard. A son of Uncle Mo, he broke his maiden at Gulfstream in 2016 and never raced again. His first crop included only six horses to make it to the races, but one was Great Navigator, who broke his maiden at Monmouth and then finished second in the Grade 3 Sanford Stakes at Saratoga, finishing ahead of eventual Breeders' Cup Juvenile-G1 winner Forte, who was fourth.

While building his pillow business, Spinella paid little attention to racing until 1992 when, by accident, he acquired his first horse. The owner of a horse named White Sox Riccio was not paying his boarding bill and the farm where he was at was owned by an acquaintance of Spinella. He was offered the horse for the $1,500 outstanding bill and decided to accept the offer. White Sox Riccio was no star, but he did win three races for Spinella and he knew then that if the opportunity ever arose, he'd like to get more involved with racing.

"That's how I got scooped up in this whole thing," he said. "Along the way I bought some other horses and they didn't really pan out, but I loved going to the races with my family and watching the horses run."

Spinella lives in Colts Neck and over the years he'd stop in and say hello to Fieramosca. After he sold his business, he had more free time on his hands and the money to make a major investment in the farm and reached out to Fieramosca with an offer to buy the venerable Jersey operation.

"It's not about money with me," Spinella said. "It's more about enjoying the sport and having some fun along the way. I want to do that and I want to build this farm to where it has the reputation it deserves."

Beatty has been put in charge of acquiring the type of horses that will show outsiders that Colonial is serious about a rebirth. His shopping list includes a stallion to join Sea Wizard. Spinella said that eventually he'd like to have three to five stallions at the farm.

"We've just started sitting down, discussing things and brainstorming," Beatty said. "So far as getting another stallion, things are still in the early stages. We know we're not going to get a Flightline, but we can get, say, a Grade 2 winner. That would be ideal. We're not looking for something that is going to cost a lot of money. We just want to make sure people have stallions to breed to in New Jersey."

When it comes to broodmares, Spinella has brought in some new faces. His early purchases included three broodmares. Sunlit Forest is in foal to Munnings and has a 2022 foal by Caravaggio. Afraah is in foal to Practical Joke and has a '22 foal by Qurbaan. Elraazy has a 2022 foal by Hard Spun. All the offspring will be registered New Jersey breds.

Beatty believes the best way to further build up the broodmare band at Colonial is to convince breeders to bring their mares back to New Jersey.

"We're looking for people who currently have mares in other states to bring them back to Jersey," he said. "That's going to be the easiest way. People used to breed in New Jersey and we want to convince them to come back. It's obviously not an overnight process. It's something that will take some time. The plans are to have 50 mares here by 2024."

"I want better quality broodmares," Spinella said. "Quantity is not important. I want to focus on quality. I could bring 50 mares in here, but if they're all going to be low end that's something that wouldn't do us any good. I want to build a name for this place and the way to do that is with quality."

Spinella and Beatty are believers. They see a brighter future for the New Jersey breeding industry and think they can spearhead a rival. But Beatty says they can't do it alone.

"We have a vision," Beatty said. "Anything that was one way in the past can get back to that. It just takes people to believe in it and people to buy into it. [The Thoroughbred Breeders' Association of New Jersey Executive Director] Mike Campbell has a pretty tough job trying to convince people to bring their mares back to New Jersey. You need more people like Carmine and myself who believe in the program. You get that and things will change. We're already starting to see that at the farm. Over the last 45 days I've probably had 70 people come out and take a look. With all the improvements Carmine has made, people say they've never seen this place look so good."

The goal is simple and, Beatty said, attainable.

"We're going to bring this place back to life," he said.

Girl Trouble ready for bigger and better things

EQUI-PHOTO INC.

When trainer Butch Reid went to the 2021 Fasig-Tipton Mid-Atlantic Yearling Sale he wanted to bring home a New Jersey-bred. He liked the program and the big purses the Jersey-breds run for at Monmouth. Based at Parx, it was an easy ship up the road to Monmouth for Reid. So the idea was, don't pay a lot, get a Jersey-bred that caught his eye and win a race or two at Monmouth.

He got what he wanted, and a whole lot more.

On behalf of owners Swilcan Stable and LC Racing, Reid bought a Jersey-bred daughter of Fast Anna for $15,000. Fast forward some 15 months later and that horse, Girl Trouble, is among the hottest 3-year-old fillies in the sport. On Jan. 3 at Parx, Girl Trouble romped by 5¼ lengths in the Parx Futurity. It was her third straight win and part of a streak in which she has captured her last three races by a combined margin of 19¼ lengths. All three races were contested at 7 furlongs or shorter.

"We're going to find out how good she is," Reid said. "She has a real good head on her shoulders and I don't think her going longer will be any problem at all. Her next race will be at least a mile."

Reid has enjoyed a lot of success buying cheap horses at the sales. The list includes Morning Matcha, an $18,000 purchase who made $653,390. There was also Vero Amore. A $15,000 purchase, she is the dam of Reid-trained champion Vequist.

The story of Girl Trouble actually begins well before her sale. Shopping at the 2020 Keeneland January Sale, Greg Kilka and Bright View Farm owner Christine Connelly picked out a maiden mare, a 4-year-old Ghostzapper filly named Adorabella in foal to Fast Anna. They paid $14,000 for her, not necessarily a bargain on paper since she never raced.

"The physical was attractive," Kilka said. "She was from a good young family. There seemed to be some upside so we took a shot."

Girl Trouble is her first foal.

At first, it appeared that Girl Trouble was going to turn out to be a useful Jersey-bred who would probably be in over her head in open-company stakes races. She debuted on June 4 at Monmouth and ran second in a state-bred maiden. She won her next start and then finished second in an allowance at Parx, which was followed by a third-place finish in the White Clay Creek Stakes at Delaware Park. Though she earned some black type in the Delaware race she was soundly beaten, losing by 10½ lengths.

Next up was an allowance race at Parx and, by then, the lightbulb had come on. She won by 8 lengths and was in hand under Paco Lopez when going across the wire. She came back to win the Future Stars Futurity Division Stakes at Parx and then the Parx Futurity. She won both races easily.

Reid said he believes the reason Girl Trouble turned things around starting with the Parx allowance was because the stable decided to make a jockey switch to Lopez.

Reid knows that the real test will come when Girl Trouble is given her chance in longer races. She has never won beyond 7 furlongs and her only try in a route or around two turns came in the 1-mile White Clay Creek Stakes. He said he is looking at races at Aqueduct and at Laurel for Girl Trouble's next start. It could come in the March 4 Busher at Aqueduct, a one-turn, 1-mile race with a purse of $250,000. The winner of the Busher gets 50 Kentucky Oaks points, more than enough to get into the race.

Naturally, Connelly and Kilka are thrilled with Girl Trouble and the prospect that she might just be the type who can win a graded stakes.

"We are excited about her success and versatility," Connelly said of Girl Trouble. "She was an attractive and athletic youngster but didn't really stand out amongst her cohorts. They were a good group and most have already won. Yet, she is the big one now."

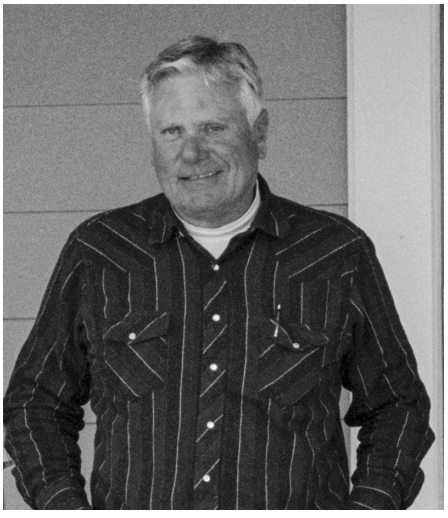
Kilka and Connelly also own a young broodmare in the 7-year-old Adorabella who is worth a lot more than the $14,000 they paid for her. Her second foal is a colt by Bucchero and is a newly turned 2-year-old. She also has a yearling colt by Classic Empire. Both colts are New Jersey-breds. She was not bred in 2022. This year, she will be bred to Medaglia d'Oro. Kilka was unsure whether or not that horse would be a registered New Jersey-bred.

In the meantime, the breeders will watch the progress of Girl Trouble intently. Is she Kentucky Oaks material? She has to prove a lot before the answer to that question is yes, but she's certainly heading in the right direction.

"This is actually the first foal that Christine and I have partnered on," Kilka said. "We're excited to have had some success so quickly. This is quite a thrill."

Gerald Sleeter passes away

Gerald "Gerry" F. Sleeter, age 82, passed away peacefully Jan. 27 at home on his farm where he was born, raised, resided his entire life, and raised his children alongside his beloved wife. He was born to race and certainly had racing in his blood. His teenage years were spent racing cars. From racing cars, he went onto bull riding and calf roping, and onto his true calling of training and racing Quarter Horses and Thoroughbreds.



Gerry won many trophies and awards, most notably the Outstanding Owner and Breeder Award in 1998 and 2002 as well as The Virgil "Buddy" Raines Distinguished Achievement Award in 2008 at Monmouth Park. He also won many stake races with horses that were bred by his wife, Carolyn, including Eleven North, Who's the Cowboy, Flirtatious Smile, Something Smith, Summer Swing, Whoop's Ah Daisy, Kaw Liga Sioux, and others. Many of the horses that the Sleeters raced retired to a comfortable life on the family farm.

Gerry had a reputation for being kindhearted and was fortunate to share many good memories throughout the years with his family and friends. He will be deeply missed.

Gerry is predeceased by his parents, Frederick Sleeter III and Alice Sleeter (nee Tong).

He is survived by his wife of 62 years, Carolyn "Sis" Sleeter (nee Auwarter); children Kevin Sleeter (Toni), Kasey Sleeter (Debbie), Kelly Paoli (Mark), and Kurt Sleeter (Anita); grandchildren Kolton Sleeter (Sammi), Justin Sleeter, Renato Paoli, Marco Paoli and Nina Paoli; sister Dolly Seals; and Humberto Segundo who was a loyal employee for 25 years that became family.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations can be made to Second Call Thoroughbred Adoption and Placement Inc. at P.O. Box 113, Helmetta, N.J. 08828.

President's message

Congratulations to Denise Walsh, and Dan and Christy Shea for their horses' wins. The NCTA had few entries during this reporting timeframe, nor were there any seconds or thirds. Therefore, the Hitting the Board chart is relatively short.

I'm delighted to report that NC-bred Hartful Hope (by Central Banker out of She's Stylish, by Posse), bred by member Art Bauer and owned by member Gerald Eckhardt, is out of layup. She is in training again at Keeneland. Her connections are eagerly awaiting her first race, as am I.

I am toying with showcasing our members' silks as a feature in this newsletter. Hopefully, this will fill up some space in this section and be fun. If you have silks, please send me a good photo of them. It will help so much. Since this idea just hit me, I will have to start with mine. Thanks for your indulgence while I figure this out.

Thank you to those who have renewed their membership for 2023. If you are like me and procrastinate, please act and renew.

– Rebecca

Racing Review

Shea D Secret, by Nyquist out of My Special Secret, by Mineshaft, won at Gulfstream Park Dec. 30 for owners Dan and Christy Shea of Shady D Boy's Stable. The now 3-year-old bay filly trained by Carlos David and ridden by Miguel Vasquez ran a mile and 70 yards in 1:42.13 on a fast dirt track. The winner rated on the inside, moved to three wide near the quarter pole and started to pick off the front runners in a closing move from the outside to win by 1¾ lengths.

Afleet Arlene, by Afleet Alex out of Rinella Bay, by Roman Ruler, won at Aqueduct Jan. 21 for breeder Denise Walsh. The 4-year-old gray/roan filly, trained by Linda Rice and ridden by Jose Lezcano, ran 6 furlongs in 1:12.94 on a fast track. The winner set the pace through a half-mile, led by 6 lengths in the stretch and drew off by 9½ lengths while proving much the best. The winner's dam was bred by Walsh and her parents' Timber Bay Farm.

Weigelia: Top PA stallion award sire in 2022

by Nikki Sherman

NIKKI SHERMAN

Weigelia at Wyn Oaks Farm

The last time Jump Start was not the leading sire in Pennsylvania by total stallion awards for a year was 2014. By 2015, with his oldest Pennsylvania-sired runners 4-year-olds, he leaped over Fairbanks on his way to becoming a Pennsylvania legend.

After seven years of Jump Start domination, 2022 marked a major change as Weigelia upended the famed son of A.P. Indy for the top spot. Weigelia's offspring garnered $186,200.56 in 319 races. Jump Start was less than $10,000 behind, with his runners making 123 more starts.

Weigelia is an intriguing stallion, especially for breeders looking to race their own foals. He raced until the age of 7 and, while his pedigree is excellent, it took the full support of owners Chip and Barbara Wheeler for his offspring to be born and raced. They were looking for a stallion to stand and breed to their own mares at their WynOaks Farm in Delta, Pa., and Weigelia fit their needs perfectly.

As a racehorse, Weigelia earned $1,007,708 while capturing eight stakes, won races on both turf and dirt, and competed from 5½ furlongs to 1 mile. He set two turf course records, 6 furlongs in 1:07 at Belmont Park and 5 furlongs in :55 at Monmouth Park. But his finest win was in the 6-furlong Grade 3 Carry Back Stakes at Calder Race Course at 3 when he earned a 108 Beyer Speed Figure. A solid citizen who won races every year from ages 2 to 6, the son of Safely's Mark is a grandson of Eclipse Champion Safely Kept as well as from the female family of the legendary champion and Hall of Famer Davona Dale.

Weigelia's offspring finally hit the track in 2012, but it was the following year when horsemen began to take notice. Isabella Swift (who ultimately raced 81 times with over $450,000 in earnings) topped his progeny earners that year at $96,153. His 2-year-old son Barracuda Wayne became his first stakes winner with a victory in Delaware Park's Strike Your Colors Stakes; Chippewawhitechief was his second when taking the Mark McDermott Stakes at Presque Isle Downs. Hitting the board in nine of 13 starts that year was Pink Princess, who eventually retired as a stakes-placed runner of 66 starts, 16 wins and earnings of $572,135. Interestingly, the latter two horses and Isabella Swift now reside in retirement at WynOaks Farm, where the two fillies are current members of the farm's broodmare band.

"It is rewarding to see recognition for Weigelia," said Barbara Wheeler. "He is consistent, for the most part, with putting runners on the ground. His best value is his consistency – good conformation, durable, useful on any surface/distance.

"Due to his own long racing career, he got a late start at stud. Even with his small crops each year he continues to play in the top rankings when you really look at his progeny performance, continued APEX ratings and the like. Everyone wants a racehorse that can run – that's great fun but it's an investment when it comes down to it – and we could all use the return on our investments like this one!"

One of the farm's star broodmares is the dam of Pink Princess, Katarica Disco (by Disco Rico). The match with Weigelia has yielded nine winners from as many starters, and also produced multiple stakes winner Disco Ebo ($374,164), stakes winner Fat Kat ($423,318), graded stakes-placed Disco Rose ($449,280), multiple allowance winner Fore Harp ($206,392) and allowance winner Disco Deja Vu ($135,114). But by far their best offspring is multiple stakes winner Smooth B, who has 10 wins from 50 starts. Now 8, he finished a strong second behind Beren in a Parx Racing allowance on Jan. 31, bringing his lifetime earnings to $732,398.

Another remarkable pairing is with the Private Interview mare Amblin Easy, whose first two foals are six-figure earners and stakes performers Ninetypercentbrynn and Ninetyprcentmaddie. Ninetypercentbrynn, now 5, has an allowance win already in her 2023 debut. She is multiple stakes-placed and has career earnings thus far of $277,496. Fresh 3-year-old Ninetyprcentmaddie looks to have an even brighter future. The colt was undefeated in his first three starts, including a runaway victory in the Whistle Pig Stakes at Parx Racing. With that win, Ninetyprcentmaddie finished fourth in the first annual PA-Bred, PA-Sired stakes series for 2-year-olds, earning $138,480 and $54,696 in breeder awards. In his first start at 3 he ran second in the open Parx Juvenile Stakes at Parx to boost his career earnings total to $152,880.

Weigelia's leading earner is Beren, who contributed $233,990 in 2022, including victories in the Frank J. De Francis Memorial Dash Stakes at Laurel Park and Jump Start Stakes at Parx Racing. Beren has total career earnings of $770,040, with 10 wins in 24 starts, and eight placings. His best season in 2021 at age 3 when winning seven of 12 starts, five in stakes, and topping $460,000 in earnings. Beren is out of multiple graded stakeswinning millionaire Silmaril.

At WynOaks Farm where he stands for a private fee, Weigelia is beloved by his owners and farm staff who affectionately call him "Wiggy". He may not be a flashy stallion upon first glance, but he has a regal presence about him.

Longtime farm manager Allison Innella has nothing but praise for the stallion. "Weigelia is a boss… THE boss! He is unwavering in attitude and opinions. He is very active, always alert and likes to go, go, go. He is a professional in the breeding shed.

"I believe he really passes on his heart and true grit to his offspring in their racing as well as their second careers. He is one classy guy. I'm lucky to have the opportunity to work with him."

Weigelia was late to the stallion game simply because he raced successfully for so many years. Now at 22 years old, he finally has the chance to shine again through his offspring.

A few words from the Executive Secretary

Congratulations to Weigelia for topping the leading stallion list for PA stallion awards for the first time in 2022! The late Jump Start held this title each year from 2015 through 2021. Weigelia topped the list with $186,200.86 in stallion awards earned across 312 races. In addition, he led the charge with four individual stakes winners (Beren, Smooth B, Disco Ebo, and Ninetyprcentmaddie) in 2022. Weigelia stands at WynOaks Farm in Delta, PA.

The PA-Bred PA-Sired 2yo Stallion Series is expanding this year and will be run in three legs, SIX STAKES, at 5½ furlongs for $100,000, 6½ furlongs for $150,000, and a mile and 70 yards for $200,000. Each leg will consist of a 2yo race and a 2yo filly race. Don't forget about the $50,000 trainer bonus for the top three point-earning horses. Nominations for the 2023 series are $500 for 2yos if paid by March 31. You can go to pabred.com under 'Forms' or 'Featured' and print the nomination form.

Broodmares that were not in the state by Dec. 1, 2022, or within 14 days of a public sale (within 60 days of a sale outside the U.S.) must be bred back to a PA-Sire. We ask that you submit all broodmare domicile forms online. The new form is available for use by going to pabred.com under 'Forms' and is now mandatory for registration.

As usual, please contact our office with any questions you may have. Pennsylvania is the only place to Breed & Race! Have a great 2023 and Go PA!

South Carolina

Thoroughbred Owners & Breeders Association

OFFICIAL NEWSLETTER MARCH 2023

Racing Across the Nation

From Dec. 30 through Jan. 21, five horses that went through the breaking process at South Carolina training centers, found the winner's circle following stakes races.

Nimitz Class, a graduate of Randy and Kala Rentz's program, and Swayin to and Fro, prepped by Franklin "Goree" Smith at his Elloree Training Center, won stakes at Laurel Park Dec. 30. In the Robert T. Manfuso Stakes, Nimitz Class, fourth until reaching the top of the stretch, put in a determined drive and made the lead in the shadow of the wire. This 4-year-old colt has won six of 12 lifetime starts (through Feb. 17) including the Danzig Stakes at Penn National last June.

The star of the South Carolina breeding industry in 2022 was unquestionably two-time stakes winner Swayin to and Fro. She was bred and raised at Smith's Elloree Training Center. As a 3-year-old in 2022, Swayin to and Fro won eight of 12 starts and earned $304,000. In the Willa On the Move Stakes in her last start of the year, she pressed the leader early before taking command in the stretch and drawing away over older runners as much the best while winning by 6½ lengths.

On Jan. 8, Wudda U Think Now captured the Say Florida Sandy Stakes at Aqueduct. This was his second straight stakes win restricted to New York-breds, after capturing the Alex M. Robb Dec. 17. Wudda U Think Now broke on top and in a game effort while being pressed throughout crossed the finish line three-quarters of a length in front. Developed into a racehorse by Donna Freyer, the 6-year-old gelding is campaigned by Stuart Grant's The Elkstone Group. Grant also is the owner of the Camden Training Center.

Opus Forty Two, a graduate of Brad Stauffer and Ron Stevens' Legacy Stable in Aiken, broke her maiden Dec. 3 in her third start at 2, and then came back and won the Gasparilla Stakes at Tampa Bay Jan. 14. She took the lead in the upper stretch, then had to hold off a fast-closing foe to win by a nose. In her first four career starts, Opus Forty Two recorded two wins and two seconds.

Another graduate of Freyer's Custom Care Equine program in Camden, Plot the Dots, recorded his first stakes victory in 33 lifetime starts when he led the field past the finish line in the Jennings Stakes at Laurel Park Jan. 21. Sixth early, Plot the Dots came six wide into the stretch, made the lead approaching the eighth pole and drew off to a 5-length victory.

Annual Banquet Enjoyed By All

The South Carolina Owners and Breeders Association Annual Banquet was held at the National Steeplechase Museum in Camden Jan. 21.

Opening remarks were made by Kip Elser, providing a progress report on the South Carolina Equine Gaming Advancement Act that is now working its way through the state legislative process.

Eric Reed, trainer of 2022 Kentucky Derby winner Rich Strike, was our keynote speaker. He gave a heart-warming talk on his Derby experience and what it meant to all of the connections.

A special thanks goes to Elser, Libbie Johnson, Rich Scelfo (who provided the wine), Wilhelmina and Fred McEwan (who donated the breeders award) and Beth Warnock and the crew from Aberdeen Catery.

Kip Elser hands the mic over to keynote speaker Eric Reed.

2022 Breeders Awards

Franklin "Goree" Smith was South Carolina's 2022 Breeder of the Year. He has earned this title 11 times in the past 13 years. During 2022, Smith's South Carolina-breds earned $532,668. We congratulate Smith, his family and the whole crew at the Elloree Training Center for a job well done.

VIRGINIA

$975,000 IN 2022 VIRGINIA BREEDERS AWARDS ANNOUNCED; 46 DIFFERENT FARMS SHARE IN BONUS MONIES

Knockgriffin Farm, Audley Farm Equine and Morgan's Ford Farm were the top recipients of 2022 Virginia Breeders awards from 46 Commonwealth-based farms that shared a total of $975,000 in bonus monies. The trio earned $94,630, $94,290 and $86,846 respectively.

Knockgriffin scored 18 separate awards — most of any farm or breeder — led by Seaside Dancer's five-pack at Golden Gate Fields and Mo Clare's, who won the Brookmeade Stakes at Colonial Downs along with an allowance there. The awards from that pair were $19,489 and $12,473 respectively. Sendero won a $19,489 bonus via another New Kent stakes — the Jamestown for two-year-olds. Other multiple award winners bred by Knockgriffin were Smart Battle and Soupster with three each.

Audley's 11 awards were led by Determined Kingdom's pair — a victory in Colonial's Punch Line Stakes and one in a Laurel allowance. Those $19,489 and $8,107 awards highlighted Audley's '22 portfolio. Glowcity had a trio of winning scores in Maryland — a maiden special weight and two claimers — which totaled $20,892. In addition, Jane Mast won a maiden special weight at Saratoga which produced a handsome $15,006 bonus.

Morgan's Ford Farm-bred horses combined for 15 wins including two each by Surya, Alex Joon, Flat Cat and Akingisalwaysking. Both of Surya's came locally — in a maiden special weight and an allowance at Colonial. Alex Joon, whose $12,473 bonus from a Colonial allowance was tops among the 15, also scored in a claimer at Oaklawn. In addition, Morgan's Ford Farm partnered with Godolphin and Tiznow Syndicate in other breeding ventures. Tango Charlie (two wins) and La Samana Laura (one win) earned awards respectively from those.

Mo Clare's won the 2022 Brookmeade Stakes at Colonial Downs with Jareth Loveberry up. The winner was bred by Knockgriffin Farm (Coady Photography).

Rounding out the top five were breeders Althea Richards and Chance Farm.

Richards had eight wins including four by Green Up, winner of two stakes — the Cathryn Sophia at Parx and the Boiling Spring at Monmouth. In all, the Upstart filly amassed $54,101 of Richards's $75,467 total. Kenny Had a Notion, with two Charles Town allowance wins, chipped in nicely with over $11,000 in bonuses.

Chance Farm, with 17 wins and $56,342 in bonus award monies, was fifth best. Princess Kaira's four wins at Parx led the way and five others chipped in with two wins apiece including Executive Chef, who captured the Auburn Stakes at Emerald Downs and a maiden special weight at Golden Gate. Red Pepper Grill prevailed in a pair of claimers at Aqueduct. Others in the two-win group include Call the Po Po, Ready and Rich and Upgrade Me.

Gigante's two wins at Colonial Downs pushed breeder Ann Backer and Smitten Farm into sixth place among bonus earners with $47,296. The Not This Time colt bankrolled a $25,000 award by winning the TAA Kitten's Joy Stakes and $14,032 from a maiden special weight, both in New Kent.

Lazy Lane Farm's $46,852 in awards came from eight winners, led by Largent's score in the Edward P. Evans Stakes at Colonial — a $19,489 bonus. Their Sing Along Suzy had a pair of claiming wins at Tampa Bay Downs.

Victories by Repo Rocks in the Let's Give Thanks Stakes at Parx and a Belmont allowance paid off nicely for breeder Mrs. C. Oliver Iselin. The triumphs earned respective bonuses of $10,758 and $13,434. American Dubai's March 26 win at Oaklawn — as a 9-year-old — added to Iselin's $31,003 final tally.

Shaaz's two allowance wins at Santa Anita as a 4-year-old produced five-digit awards for the William Backer Revocable Estate. The Uncle Mo horse triggered bonus paydays of $11,225 and $10,758 which helped trigger Backer's total of $29,981.

Chambeau's stakes win in the M. Tyson Gilpin produced a $19,489 score for breeder Sam English II. The daughter of Karakontie followed that with an allowance win at Pimlico in September. English's overall 2022 award totaled $29,903.

Surya, bred by Morgan's Ford Farm, captured an allowance at Colonial Downs August 1 with Forest Boyce in the irons (Coady Photography).

Other '22 notables include Boldor — bred by Carlos Moore and Gillian Gordon-Moore — who prevailed in the Meadow Stable Stakes last summer. The now 7-year-old Munnings gelding produced a $23,387 reward in winning his third career Virginia-bred stakes.

The Virginia-bred with the most bonus earning wins was Determined Love, who got his picture taken five times at Fort Erie and once at Penn National. The now 6-year-old Shackleford mare was bred by Mr. & Mrs. C. Oliver Iselin.

Boondoggle, owned and bred by Leanne Hester, produced five wins in Maryland resulting in $16,012 in Breeders bonus monies. The 9-year-old gelding's wins also provided Hester with over $20,000 in stallion awards. Boondoggle is a son of Gone Clubbing, who she stands. Hester had two other Stallion bonus scores with Spritzer, who was also sired by Gone Clubbing. In all, she received $37,514 in stallion awards from a $75,000 pool.

Ruxton Farm was next with $29,933 in stallion bonuses courtesy of Fierce Wind, whose offspring won a trio of races. Tolaga Bay captured two last August at Colonial — an allowance and starter allowance — and Itsknownasthebern won a claimer at Timonium.

Lady Olivia at North Cliff, LLC got a $5,090 check for stallion Cosa Vera, whose mare Osa won a maiden claiming race at Colonial July 20. Smallwood Farm earned $2,460 in awards from stallion Friend or Foe, whose filly Almendra R. won back-to-back claiming races at Camarero Race Track.

JILL BYRNE ASSUMES NEW POSITION WITH THE VIRGINIA EQUINE ALLIANCE

The Virginia Equine Alliance - a non-profit, 501 (c) 6 organization that sustains, promotes and expands the horse breeding and horse racing industries in Virginia, announced Jill Byrne as its new Vice President of Strategic Planning.

"Byrne is a wonderful fit for the role, especially with her decades of experience in the horse racing and breeding industries," said Jeb Hannum, Executive Director of the VEA. "From being in the heart of it by exercising horses, to working in strategic communications roles, Byrne has a thorough understanding of the industries."

The organization will work with Byrne's depth of industry expertise to further advance the community's understanding and enthusiasm for horse breeding and racing.

Byrne's other roles throughout her career have included serving as an on-air personality for TVG, the Director of Broadcasting and Programming for Churchill Downs, the Director of Industry Relations for the Breeders' Cup and, most recently, the VP of Racing Operations for Colonial Downs.

"I like to say that my career in the industry truly began when I was much younger, growing up on the farm and working with horses, from exercising them to caring for them," Byrne said. "I am grateful to have had both hands-on experience as well as experience in strategically promoting the industries."

Raised in Barboursville, Virginia, Byrne grew up on a horse farm with two parents who were both accomplished equestrians.

"My love for the industry began at such a young age, and it has been a part of my life ever since," Byrne said. "Growing up in Virginia, I have a close connection and passion for the horse breeding and racing industries here."

Jill Byrne, most recently VP of Racing Operations at Colonial Downs, was named Virginia Equine Alliance VP of Strategic Planning.

The lowdown during winter slowdown

By Jeff Gilleas

We are always looking for fresh faces to fortify the entry box or to grace the headlines. With no West Virginia stakes races scheduled until April, and 2-year-olds denied access to the stable area until March 1, our attention focused on less experienced, though ambitious applicants.

Hopefully, their impact will provide an optimistic outlook and yield a snapshot into the future.

In a limited sample size to date, I spotted these perspective individuals.

JAN. 4: LITTLE ROO ROO

Michael E. Jones Jr. has significantly expanded his stable in recent months, and in combination with his new found prosperity has several West Virginia-bred runners label him in the dual role of owner/trainer.

Little Roo Roo, a son of Limehouse out of Pepper Bay, handled his maiden special weight contemporaries with relative ease drawing clear by 4½ lengths.

Odds of 21-1 were justified considering his first two sub-par efforts, but what a difference a little experience and clear sailing makes.

The chestnut gelding was bred by Sherwood Bryant.

JAN. 6: STRYDA

Speed is a precious commodity at 4½ furlongs, but Stryda, a daughter of seven-time consecutive Maryland leading sire Great Notion, took it to a whole new level by establishing a 7½-length margin at the opening quarter-mile call.

Owned by FTF Racing and trained by Jamey Johnson, the compact dynamo was bred in West Virginia by Jill Daniel.

JAN. 18: BLUE MOUNTAIN

In the end, persistence sometimes overshadows talent. In three starts, Blue Mountain has collected a win and two seconds for owner John Julia and trainer Kevin Joy.

The daughter of Limehouse out of Jamie's Silent Bid, was bred by Elke Matthews and has the appearance of a filly who'll appreciate added ground.

JAN. 18: BARBERS POINT

One race doesn't make a career, however when this filly by Congrats out of Saturday Nthe Park authoritatively stepped on the track for her debut, it was like greeting royalty.

Breaking alertly from her inside position, the dark bay merely toyed with rivals, and under hand urging widened to an 8-length decision.

Barbers Point is owned and bred by Coleswood Farm, and trained by Jeff Runco.

JAN. 25: TOBI WAN KENOBI

Handicappers love to see a developing pattern of improvement when analyzing a race.

Tobi Wan Kenobi went from seventh in his initial start to fourth in his second attempt, and found the winner's circle in his third career effort.

Seasoning is a term often used in horse racing or maybe it just took time for 'the force' to kick in.

Owned and bred by O'Sullivan Farms and trained by Javier Contreras, the 3-year-old is from the first crop of Aldrin out of Prized Annuity.

JAN. 26: LUCKY BOP

Sometimes a horse's performance is better than its speed ratings.

That was just the case when Lucky Bop powered down the lane to break his maiden in career start number two.

Owned by Roger Sterling and trained by Lewis Craig, the son of Madefromlucky out of Beboppin Betty was bred by Dennis Bybee at Bybee Road Farm.

We are deeply saddened to report the passing of Dennis Bybee.

An active Thoroughbred owner and breeder, Mr. Bybee served with distinction on the Board of Directors of both the Charles Town HBPA and West Virginia Thoroughbred Breeders Association.

Dennis was a teacher of mathematics and science and had been involved in the breeding business since his graduation from Fresno State in 1965.

JAN. 7: JUBA'S NOTION

An upset winner of the Vincent Moscarelli Memorial on Breeders Classics night, Juba's Notion continued in training during the winter months, and his connections were paid dividends with a resounding 6-length allowance score.

The son of Juba out of Jacky's Notion is owned, trained and bred by John Casey and now sports a record of three wins, three seconds and a third in eight starts.

JAN. 11: ICING

Trainer Norman Cash and his Built Wright Stable know the value of a horse, especially one willing to take his/her talents on the road, as evidenced by 26-time winner Beverly Park.

So when Icing, a West Virginia-bred son of Nyquist out of Honey Chile, fell into his lap via a private purchase . . . Charles Town here they come.

With two thirds, an allowance win and a second since his arrival, the 4-year-old bred by James Miller is slowly living up to the $300,000 paid for him as a 2-year-old.

JAN. 19: HOPPING HENRY

Hopping Henry has been burdened with his fair share of trials and tribulations, but the noticeable son of Juba out of Phone Jazz continues to perform well for owner, trainer and breeder Mike Sterling.

He may be best remembered as Juba's first stakes winner, however since the addition of a full cup blinker, the big-hearted gray is a model of consistency.

JAN. 19: SOMEDAY IS TODAY

Fans always enjoy a distinctive name, especially if it is a combination of the sire and dam.

Someday Is Today is by Carpe Diem out of Any Day Now, and when the mood strikes her, she seizes the early lead and appears unbeatable.

From my perch in the press box, I've been afforded a front row seat to her 11 starts at Charles Town.

Temperamental might best describe the Anthony Farrior-conditioned chestnut.

On occasion she appears calm, cool and collected, but on the infrequent end of the spectrum, warm and slightly agitated.

Regardless of which personality shows up, the flashy 5-year-old exhibits a disdain for heavy handling, and prefers to negotiate any distance at her selected tempo.

Someday Is Today is owned by Andrew Warren and was bred by Schiano Racing and Carpe Diem Syndicate.

JAN. 20: COASTAL MISSION

This son of Great Notion out of Smart Crowd has big shoes to fill as the full-brother to crack Mid-Atlantic sprinter Lewisfield.

That multiple stakes winner amassed more than $535,000 during a stellar career that featured wins in the Maryland Million Sprint and Not For Love Stakes (twice) for Jeff Runco, who also trains little brother.

Coastal Mission, already four times stakes-placed in eight starts and never worse than third, can stalk or set the pace and already has established an undeniable presence in his home state. He is owned and was bred by Coleswood Farm.

Benefits of Owning a WV-Bred and/or -Sired racehorse

Some of the best incentives in the nation!

- A minimum of three accredited races are written every day at Charles Town exclusively for registered WV-bred and/or -sired horses.
- West Virginia has the only program in the country that permits horses to win state-bred races that do not count against the horse's lifetime open conditions.
- The WV Thoroughbred Development Fund distributes more than $4.5 million to breeders, owners, and stallion owners of accredited WV-bred and/or -sired horses based the horse's annual earnings at Charles Town and Mountaineer Park racetracks.
- The West Virginia Breeders Classics pays out almost $1 million in purses for WV-bred and/or -sired horses. It is held annually on the second Saturday in October.
- $800,000 in purses are allocated for up to 16 WV accredited stakes races during the year.
- Supplemental Purse Awards of up to 10% of the winner's share of the purse to the owner, breeder, and/or sire owner of the accredited WV-bred and/or -sired winner.
- West Virginia offers year-round racing with approximately 300 race days per year.

Meet National Steeplechase's most recognized filmmaker – Sam Slater

By Betsy Burke Parker

His family has touched pretty much every aspect of the horse world.

When former National Steeplechase Foundation president, retired National Steeplechase Association videographer and one-time Banks Race competitor at the Scarteen meet in Ireland Sam Slater unspooled his family horse racing legacy, it was quite a tale, spanning two centuries and two continents.

Slater is a past winner of one of Maryland horse racing's highest honors, and his family tree has been fruitful for generations. Sister Joy Slater won the AHSA Medal classic, was the first woman to win the Maryland Hunt Cup, and is, by many accounts, one of the nation's most well-rounded and highly accomplished stylists. Their mother, Jill Fanning was another standout, training the winners of most of the nation's top races, including three Maryland Hunt Cups.

Grandparents Miles and Joy Valentine were among the best-known owner-breeders on the circuit for decades, and their pink-with-cerise-hearts silks were - and, today, continue to be - the most-recognized on racecourses on both sides of the Atlantic.

From the tiny village of Cahervillahow in County Tipperary to the racecourse at Maryland's Fair Hill - meet members of his clan to understand how it is that Sam Slater is ending up in his basement storage room for hours these days, digitizing thousands of yards of celluloid of American steeplechasing film.

National Steeplechase archivist Sam Slater

Sam Slater may not have ridden a Maryland Hunt Cup winner like his sister, nor saddled one like his mother, nor been owner-breeder of a long list of hurdle and timber stakes winners like his grandparents, yet Slater has been part of American steeplechasing's framework for more than 40 years. Behind the camera and in front of it, Slater played an integral role in legitimizing the game and bringing it to a new level of professionalism, both in the eyes of the participants and the eyes of the world.

Slater, 71, grew up in Bedminster, New Jersey, middle of the Essex hunt country and just down the road from the U.S. Equestrian Team headquarters at Gladstone.

"We used to see all sorts of Olympic riders there," Slater recalls, people like Mike Plumb, Jimmy Wofford, Kevin Freeman and Bruce Davidson who would often gallop horses for Slater's mother, steeplechase trainer Jill Fanning. "In those days, they really recognized how racehorses taught you a sense of pace," and many of the elite level eventers also rode races. Kevin Freeman won the Pennsylvania Hunt Cup in 1969 and New Jersey Hunt Cup in 1970 on Stutter Start for owner-trainer Jill Fanning.

Slater's father, Nelson Slater, was a traffic engineer, later Deputy Transportation Secretary for the state of New Jersey. "He was a non-horsey person," Sam Slater says, "but abided all the family horse activity while my parents were married."

His parents divorced in 1974; Nelson Slater moved to Connecticut and remarried. Jill moved to Pennsylvania and married horseman Phil Fanning.

Slater rode as a child but quit after a disastrous costume class incident involving an Eddie Arcaro costume and a retired racehorse. He didn't really take it back up until he was 17. When he did, his motives weren't altogether pure.

"I figured out it was a good way to meet girls," he says. "I was right."

Slater studied at the Groton School in Massachusetts and the University of Pennsylvania. He took some film courses at the New School and New York University, having had a taste of documentary work as a teen.

"So, my mother and my sister were the serious riders in the family," Slater traces how he ended up behind the camera rather than in front of it. "It was the days of super 8 film (video) cameras. It wasn't like today with different cameras and positions around the course – it was just me and one hand-held camera.

"They said, 'here, film this race.' I got pretty good at it."

After school, he embraced foxhunting, and rode a handful of point-to-points, including the Banks race at the Scarteen Point-to-Point in Ireland.

In 1977-'78, Slater moved to England to work with David Balding's Red Oak television production. A cousin of trainer Ian Balding (Mill Reef, winner of the 1971 Epsom Derby and the Arc), David Balding had lots of race film contracts, plus they worked on projects from the Royal Windsor carriage competition to producing a feature on the Wimbledon ball boys and more. Slater worked the Epsom and Irish derbies before returning to the U.S.

Back home, Slater conceived Hunt Cup Productions when Cancottage's first owner in the U.S., Broderick Munro Wilson contracted Slater to document his quest to win the 1979 Maryland Hunt Cup.

"He was a real self-promoter," Slater says of the English-born and -based owner-rider, "but he gets full credit for picking out Cancottage and recognizing him as a horse that would excel in American timber racing."

The idea, Slater explains, was for him to produce a slick documentary – now using "modern" 16mm film – of Munro Wilson and Cancottage prepping for, and winning, the American classic.

They'd sell it to the BBC, Munro Wilson said. It would be an instant hit.

It didn't happen quite that way.

Munro Wilson sent Cancottage to Jill Fanning to train, and Sam Slater began collecting footage. Munro Wilson and Cancottage finished second in the Elkridge Harford heavyweight timber in early April, third of three in the Grand National two weeks later. Munro Wilson fell when in contention at the 17th in the Maryland Hunt Cup the following week. Munro Wilson remounted, finishing hundreds of lengths behind winner Dosdi, but is credited as fifth.

Munro Wilson scrapped the film, but Slater liked being involved in the sport so important to his family for so many generations.

A year or two later, home video started coming in, Slater says, "with better film and smaller cameras," so he could have cameras positioned around a racecourse, and they'd be more mobile, more dynamic.

In 1982, Steve Groat had seen his camera work and asked him to be the official videographer at the Fair Hill Races. Soon, Slater was covering most of the mid-Atlantic and northeast meets for NSA. He teamed with filmmaker Damon Sinclair when HCP took over all the NSA meets in 1990.

"It was fun work, but it was a ton of work," Slater says, citing burnout and a renewed focus on his non-profit and foundation work when he stepped back from HCP in 2016 and handed the reins to Sinclair.

Slater served on 12 boards at one point – including terms as president of the National Steeplechase Foundation. He gave most of them up a few years later. Today he's focused on the painstaking work of digitizing the thousands of hours of archival steeplechase footage in his basement library, in partnership with TGSF (want to donate to the project? Check our website at TGSteeplechaseFoundation.org).

He's produced several American 'chasing documentaries, including one on the Maryland Hunt Cup centennial and Americans at Aintree. Slater won the Maryland Hunt Cup Association's S. Bryce Wing trophy in 2016.

Mother – Jill Fanning built on the family legacy

Joy Valentine's daughter from her first marriage to Burnet Landreth Jr., Joy Landreth Fanning has always been known as Jill.

Born in 1927, she's credited for sparking an interest in riding in her parents when she started riding and foxhunting in her youth, and, later, in her two children, Sam and Joy.

Fanning eventually became joint-master and field master for the Essex Foxhounds in New Jersey, positions she held more than two decades in the '50s,'60s and '70s. She hunted regularly in the U.S. and Ireland until just a few years before she died.

She rode in ladies point-to-points in the '50s and '60s and trained many top timber horses. One of her best was homebred Freeman's Hill, who like another homebred, Bewley's Hill, won the Maryland Hunt Cup.

She owned Trapper John, who won the Stayers' Hurdle at the Cheltenham Festival in 1990.

But Fanning's best-known training coup came in 1980 – with an encore in 1981, when she trained her mother's Cancottage to win the Maryland Hunt Cup with her daughter Joy Slater aboard. Joy Slater was the first woman to win the race in 1980, winning again with Cancottage, in 1981. She would have been in the irons in the 1983 Hunt Cup, but Joy Slater took a hard fall in the Grand National the week before. Charlie Fenwick got the ride on Cancottage, winning a third Hunt Cup and taking permanent possession of the challenge trophy for Joy Valentine. Joy Slater was back in the tack for Cancottage's 1984 New Jersey Hunt Cup and Pennsylvania Hunt Cup wins.

Jill Fanning hunted Cancottage when he retired after the 1985 Hunt Cup (third), riding him through the 1998 hunt season. He was put down in 1999 at age 29.

Married to Philip Fanning for 27 years, Jill Fanning died March 23, 2003.

Philip Ford Nieukirk Fanning earned a Purple Heart in World War II, attending Princeton when he returned home. A longtime member of the Pennsylvania Horse Breeders Association, Fanning's Ivy Dell Stud produced champion Great Hunter and homebred half-sisters, Gold Glove and Oh My Pride that won Maryland Million races.

Phil Fanning rode Polly Denckla's Ned's Flying to win the 1958 Maryland Hunt Cup. (Ned's Flying won in 1957 under Gene Weymouth.) He died in 2016.

Eddie VanSant

Retired trainer, exercise rider and jockey Edgar L. "Eddie" VanSant died Jan. 23. He was 90. The Pennsylvania native graduated from Delaware's Newark High School in 1950 and earned a business degree at Goldey-Beacom College. He served in the Korean War, and pursued a career in racing.

VanSant was briefly a jockey, then an exercise rider/assistant trainer, then a trainer. He worked for trainer Buddy Raines at Delaware's Brandywine Stable adjacent to Delaware Park and was responsible for much of the early-season training of 1962 Preakness Stakes winner Greek Money, among other stable stars. VanSant discussed the winter of 1962, largely spent in Brandywine's quarter-mile indoor track for a 2012 article in Mid-Atlantic Thoroughbred. Greek Money ran 16 times as a 2-year-old in 1961, so the early work really wasn't work.

"I didn't do a thing with him at first," said VanSant, then 80 and living in Florida. "I turned him out in a paddock with a donkey a friend of mine had. Two hours every day. The first day, Greek Money ran over like he was going to tear that donkey's head off. The donkey went to hollering and kicking and that was that. They got along fine."

VanSant and Greek Money started toward the Preakness Jan. 1 – jogging and loping in the track. By February, they were galloping with a faster lap thrown in on Saturdays.

"He'd just about pull you in half when you galloped him," VanSant said. "And he'd throw a great big buck into you when you'd come from a gallop to a lope."

Greek Money went to Laurel for his first outdoor training in March, made his first 3-year-old start there in April, added the Chesapeake Stakes and Preakness Prep, then won a battle with Kentucky Derby winner Ridan by a nose in the Preakness.

Years later, Raines would introduce VanSant's son Wayne to people with the comment, "His father won the Preakness for me."

Eddie VanSant later trained on his own in the Mid-Atlantic, Florida and California, teaming up with owner Jean Pancoast for some of his best runners.

In addition to Wayne, a blacksmith and racing official on the National Steeplechase Association circuit, survivors include daughter Valerie Essmaker, sister Patricia Golden and two grandchildren.

Martha Green

Maryland horsewoman Martha Ann Cerra Green died Jan. 2. She was 83. Born in New York City, she was classmates with the daughters of jockey Eddie Arcaro and trainer Hirsch Jacobs at the Academy of St. Joseph in New York and developed a lifelong interest in horses.

She showed horses all over Long Island, and competed in the open jumper classes and equitation at Madison Square Garden. After her schooling, she turned down a veterinary scholarship to Cornell University to pursue a career with horses. She taught riding lessons, galloped racehorses in New York, and worked for trainer Eddie O'Brien in South Carolina in the 1960s. She later worked with Matt O'Grady, Bobby Dotter and Mikey Smithwick in Maryland.

Green obtained a trainer's license in several states and ran her business, called Rainbow Valley, with hands-on attention to horses such as Exceedingly, Dreyfus II, Fast Gray, Mr. Wilford, Watauga Lake, Short Crissy, Count Brook, Ancestry, Longfellow Place, Hail Emperor and others as racehorses, stallions or broodmares.

Green bred ponies to small Thoroughbred stallions to create Thoroughbred cross show pony prospects which formed an extension of the racing stable called Rainbow Valley Ponies. She had a passion for rehabbing and/or retraining off-the-track Thoroughbreds using a treadmill. She didn't limit herself to equines as she had countless goats, donkeys, miniature horses, emus, ducks, geese, chickens, pigs and even a small alligator she purchased from a classified ad.

A 1981 Maryland Horse profile by Snowden Carter used the following quote from Green: "I'm hard to get along with. There's only one way to do things, and that's my way... But I'm doing what I want to do, and that's what counts."

Green's life changed when she was hit by a car in 2020, but the accident did little to diminish her spirit or love of animals. Survivors include her son, John H. Green Jr. and daughter Missy Green, daughter-in-law Allison Green, two grandchildren, two nieces and several animal friends.

Green left instructions to have her ashes spread upon the hill at Rainbow

Gerry Sleeter

New Jersey horseman Gerald F. "Gerry" Sleeter died Jan. 27 on the farm where he was born, raised and lived his entire life. He was 82. Sleeter spent his teenage years racing cars, but he moved on to bull riding, calf roping and ultimately racing Quarter Horses and Thoroughbreds. He received the outstanding owner and breeder awards from the New Jersey Thoroughbred Breeders Association in 1998 and 2002 and the Virgil "Buddy" Raines Distinguished Achievement Award in 2008 at Monmouth Park.

The Sleeter family – Gerry, his wife Carolyn and son Kevin – bred, owned and trained such New Jersey-bred stars as Eleven North, her millionaire half-brother Who's the Cowboy, and others during a long career in racing.

Survivors include his wife of 62 years, children Kevin Sleeter, Kasey Sleeter, Kelly Paoli and Kurt Sleeter, five grandchildren, sister Dolly Seals and 25-year employee Humberto Segundo who "became family" according to the family obituary. Memorial contributions can be made to Second Call Thoroughbred Adoption and Placement (sctap.com) in Holmdel, N.J.

Mildred Fleming

A retired elementary and high school teacher, and longtime Thoroughbred owner/breeder, Mildred "Millie" Fleming died Feb. 4. She was 84. Fleming and her husband Larry purchased their first racehorse, Joanne's Pet, in 1976 and stayed involved for nearly 50 years.

She served two terms as president of the New Jersey Thoroughbred Breeders Association, was also the association treasurer and taught Equine Studies at Centenary University in Hackettstown.

Last year, she received the Virgil "Buddy" Raines Distinguished Achievement Award.

"This means the world to me. I know the elite company I'm in," she said at the time. "I'm the first breeder to receive this award so it truly is special to me."

In addition to her husband, survivors include children Victoria D'Arrigo and Richard Bielfield and three grandchildren. Memorial contributions can be made to Second Call Thoroughbred Adoption and Placement (sctap.com) in Holmdel, N.J.

■ The New Jersey track conflicts continued to cause unrest as Maryland horsemen protested the new spring and summer dates at Havre de Grace, which saw a reduction to four days a week rather than its customary seven days in an attempt to avoid direct conflict with the new Garden State spring meet.

But expected to meet horsemen's approval was a new policy revealed by Havre de Grace and Pimlico eliminating 2-year-old stakes in the spring, the exception being the series of breeders stakes run in conjunction with the Maryland Horse Breeders Association. President Henry A. Parr III of Pimlico and Charles J. McLennan, general manager of Havre de Grace, took this action after a series of conferences; a general consensus was that spring stakes for juveniles never meant much, either in money or prestige, and on occasions, victory in one of these early fixtures at short distances resulted in undue penalties for the winner.

■ Nearly 40 trainers, including the conditioners of a number of top-flight stables, wintered at Pimlico, Bowie, Laurel and Timonium despite a "New England winter" of snow-covered racetracks and severe cold. Among those at Pimlico were Henry Clark, who took over the Christiana string following the death of John A. Healey; and F.A. Bonsal, with H.L. Straus runners. Ed Christmas had 20 horses at Bowie for William Brann including top-class 3-year-old Escadru and renowned racemare Gallorette. Hirsch Jacobs was also at Bowie with a string of 22.

■ A pictorial visit to William L. Brann's Glade Valley Farm included photos of the stallion barn, home to national leading sire *Challenger II; Brann-bred yearling fillies; and a couple of early *Challenger II foals.

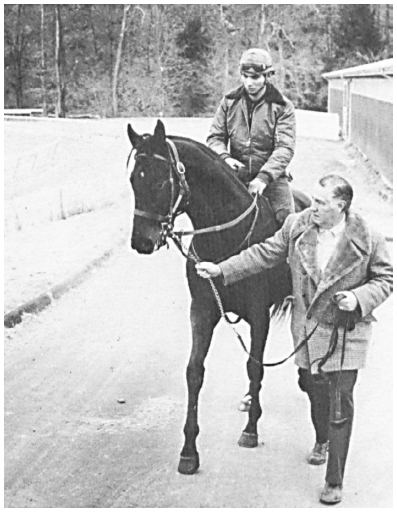
■ Off to a fast start in 1973 was Bonita Farm's Bold Monarch, who ranked as Maryland's leading stallion and was booked full, thanks to the 1973 stakes victories by 3-year-olds Marian Bender and Bold Victor. "It's amazing to realize that we've got the state's leading stallion," said farm patriarch Bill Boniface, 56-year-old racing editor of the Baltimore Sunpapers. "When you think of Northern Dancer and Nearctic and realize that our horse is on top – well, who would ever have believed it?"

The syndicated son of Bold Ruler was originally purchased by Boniface and J. Fred Colwill and Snowden Carter for the "terrifying sum [to Boniface and Carter]" of $100,000 in 1967. Through his 1972 season he covered 157 mares of which 106 conceived (after a few tense weeks at the start of his stud career in which he was described as a "blushing violet.") At the time of the article, Bold Monarch was represented by 22 starters, of which 21 were winners, two in stakes.

■ Within a 14-month span, Maryland-bred full-sisters Noble Splash and Tsip were sold privately by their breeders, Mr. and Mrs. L.E. Thomas, for approximately $200,000 after winning stakes in Florida. First to go was Tsip in 1972, sold to Arnold Winick after scoring the Miss Tropical Handicap at Tropical Park in her first start at 5. The Thomases parted with Noble Splash the next February, selling her to F. Eugene Dixon Jr. after the just-turned 5-year-old won her stakes debut in Hialeah's Poinsettia Handicap.



SKIP BALL

Maryland's top stallion Bold Monarch, ridden by Jim Douvres, is led by Bill Boniface, who arranged for the purchase of the Bold Ruler stallion from the Phipps.

The seventh stakes winner for Maryland sire Noble Jay, out of the Hoop Jr. mare Splasher, Noble Splash was unraced at 2 and 3 – her breeders made it a policy to not race their 2-year-olds, and she suffered a stifle injury while training at 3. Noble Jay stood at Marshall Glass's The Gambit in Warwick, where his daughters were foaled.

■ Five Maryland breeders purchased shares in the most expensive horse in history, 1972 Horse of the Year Secretariat. Inheritance taxes following the death of breeder Christopher T. Chenery compelled his heirs to syndicate the Virginia-bred Bold Ruler colt into 32 equal shares. Chenery's heirs retained four, while the other shares were sold for $190,000 apiece – valuing the Kentucky Derby favorite at $6,080,000. Maryland breeders Mr. and Mrs. David L. Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. Milton (Laddie) Dance, William S. Farish III, Mrs. Richard C. duPont and E.P. Taylor purchased shares.

■ Two Maryland-sired runners took home 1997 Eclipse Awards when Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies-G1 winner Countess Diana, by former Murmur Farm stallion Deerhound, was named champion 2-year-old filly, and Smoke Glacken, by Northview Stallion Station's Two Punch, earned the title of champion sprinter.

Roanoke, set to stand his first season at Reigle Heir Farm in Pennsylvania after relocating from Kentucky, was the sire of Canada's 1997 Sovereign Award-winning 2-year-old champion Dawson's Legacy.

Maryland-bred Smoke Glacken was the seventh Eclipse Award-winning sprinter from the Mid-Atlantic region, joining What a Summer, J. O. Tobin, Star de Naskra, Guilty Conscience, Safely Kept and Rubiano. Since the advent of the Eclipse Awards in 1971, regional-breds accounted for 25 percent in the sprinter division.

■ The Millers – "steeplechasing's first family" – from Cochranville, Pa., participated in "20 questions you always wanted to ask about the Millers" with Joe Clancy. Bruce Miller, who sent out Lonesome Glory to his fourth Eclipse Award in 1997, his daughter Blythe and son Chip, all steeplechase champions, answered everything from "Are those their real names?" to "What's the secret to their success?" to "How long will all of this last?"

LYDIA A. WILLIAMS

Eclipse Award winner and Maryland-bred Horse of the Year Smoke Glacken.

■ The racing season of 1997 for Mid-Atlantic-bred horses and sires provided a bounty of facts and figures. Counted among the highlights: The richest runner of the year was Virginia-bred, Japan-based Seeking the Pearl, who amassed $2,084,09; Maryland-based Allen's Prospect was the top stallion (with $3.6 million); 92 Maryland-breds–17 were graded winners – won 152 stakes; of Virginia's 36 stakes winners, 11 were graded winners.

■ John A. Manfuso, who made his fortune in the pharmaceutical business, but pursued horses and horsemen's causes as primary advocations, died at 93. His Osufnam Farm in Westminster produced a bevy of good runners, many given names beginning with the letter A, including Aneroid, All Brandy and A Magic Spray. He helped found the Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association in the 1940s, served as its national president and chairman of the board for 20 years, and was inducted into the Horsemen's Hall of Fame. His sons, John A. "Tom" Manfuso Jr. and Robert T. Manfuso, were also prominent owner/ breeders as well as former part-owners of Laurel and Pimlico racetracks.

RENEE LUDWIG

■ Apprentice jockey Jose Montano (above) claimed the first Eclipse award – human or equine – for Charles Town. The 26-year-old topped North American-based apprentices with 226 wins in 2012 (187 with the bug). Longtime agent Billy Kennedy said, "I told him it's an honor to get nominated and he should enjoy it, but they don't usually vote for people like you because you ride at Charles Town." With 127 votes, Montano easily outpaced runner up Irad Ortiz Jr. (who lost his bug in early February 2012).

■ Ben's Cat repeated as Maryland-bred Horse of the Year, champion turf horse and champion older male, as the son of Parker's Storm Cat won five of nine starts in 2012 at age 6 and became a millionaire. His lifetime earnings stood at more than $1.35 million, placing him 11th on the state's all-time leading earners list.

■ Maryland-bred Barbecue Eddie's far-flung career saw him get his first stakes win at age 9 in the Group 2 Al Maktoum Challenge Round 1 at Meydan in Dubai. Owned by Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum and trained by Doug Watson, he won his fourth race in a row and 10th overall in 36 starts while earning more than $900,000. After launching his career in California at 3 and placing in five stakes in 11 starts, four graded, including the Grade 1 Ancient Title, he moved to Dubai in 2008.

■ Champion sprinter Orientate, winner of the 2002 Breeders' Cup Sprint-G1 and that year's Eclipse award, and a successful Grade 1 sire, arrived at Northview Stallion Station in Chesapeake City. The syndicated 15-year-old former Gainesway stallion was the sire of 35 stakes winners in seven crops, with total progeny earnings of more than $34 million. His nearly $4.9 million in progeny earnings in 2012 was the most of any stallion set to stand the upcoming season in Maryland.

■ Year-end statistical highlights in 2012: Pennsylvania had the most stakes winners in the region with 52, 11 graded; the region's leading sire was Pennsylvania-based E Dubai with more than $8 million; and the region's richest runner was twice classic-placed Virginia-bred Bodemeister. The Audley Farm-bred colt retired with six career starts at 3, earning $1,304,800.

International Game

Author Dick Francis, previously a champion steeplechase jockey in Britain and a winner of more than 350 races, visited Maryland in February 1969 and joined Sheila Jackson, then master of the Green Spring Valley Hounds, for a day's hunt. Francis, who wrote more than 40 international best-sellers (all with a racing backdrop), toured the Maryland Hunt Cup course with Janon Fisher Jr., breeder/owner/trainer of three-time race winner Mountain Dew.

Walter M. "Skip" Ball was an award-winning staff photographer for Maryland Horse magazine from the mid-1960s to the late 1980s. His children donated his work to the Maryland Horse Breeders Association several years ago, and the photographs are part of the Maryland Horse Library as the Skip Ball Collection. In the next stages of our archiving projects, Ball's films and slides will be digitized to preserve this gifted photographer's legacy.

Mid-Atlantic 2022 Statistical Review

— The Numbers Game —

There are two main camps when it comes to statistics. One believes they are valuable tools when trying to compare or evaluate performances. The other embraces the phrase "Lies, damned lies and statistics" that means numbers bolster weak arguments or prove points that may not be totally accurate in the big picture.

Regardless of where you sit, statistics in the sports world are vital. In Thoroughbred breeding, not only can they be used to quantify quality or show trends, they can be quite enlightening.

For more than 30 years, Mid-Atlantic Thoroughbred has provided a bounty of statistics for readers to pour over. Each year, this edition includes an alphabetical listing of state-bred stakes winners, breeding statistics from The Jockey Club on the number of mares bred by local stallions, the number of stakes horses by local stallions, and more.

Want to see a list of Virginia-bred millionaires? Turn to page 138. Or find West Virginia breeders of stakes winners for the year? See page 148. How many mares were bred to Maryland stallions the past 15 years? Go to page 100. Who was the leading earner among Pennsylvania-breds last season? Page 122. How many New Jersey-bred stakes winners per year since 2008? Kindly turn to page 113.

Mid-Atlantic Thoroughbred uses a variety of sources to compile this trove. Each state's breeders' association provides background on its organization and its programs, and when available, statistics on the individual state fund program.

The Jockey Club annually supplies breeding statistics for each state. Found in the shaded boxes throughout the state's statistical section are charts showing numbers of mares bred, foals born in the state, total earnings by state-bred runners, along with a running history of those numbers.

The Jockey Club has similar information available in its State Fact Books section on its website. But Mid-Atlantic Thoroughbred provides numbers going back for more than a decade. The Jockey Club also provides an annual Report of Mares Bred/Live Foal Report for all stallions in its database on a state-by-state basis.

Mid-Atlantic-bred stakes horses are highlighted, and stakes winners have brief bios, which include a pedigree line, the breeder, plus the owner and trainer at the time the runner last won a stakes, in addition to a listing of all the stakes performances for the year.

Leading state-bred runners for the year – by earnings and wins – are found within these pages, as is an alphabetical listing of the breeders of state-bred stakes winners.

Mid-Atlantic Thoroughbred utilizes The Jockey Club Information System's database for state-bred runners lists and stallion progeny figures. TJCIS includes all statistic information from the Northern and Southern Hemispheres, the most comprehensive numbers available. Thus TJCIS's lists of leading earners produced for each state takes into account horses who never started in the U.S. or Europe.

And stallions with runners in Southern Hemisphere countries have those figures added to year-end totals (including newly-turned 2-year-olds in South America, Australia and New Zealand who are just launching their careers in November and December).

Statistics in these pages can be used as the reader sees fit. Follow breeding trends, recap a runner's season, find out how much a state breeders' fund paid out, get the track record for a stallion.

If Mid-Atlantic Thoroughbred helps you settle an argument with a statistical non-believer, you're welcome. With the rise of the electronic age, more information can be found on the internet. But these pages give a comprehensive overview of the previous season, in one spot. Pick it up, turn to a page, explore, get lost in the numbers.

If nothing else, realize that the annual statistical section proves one thing – there is a rich and bountiful industry in this region that should never be overlooked.

And now you've got the numbers to prove it.

Delaware Certified Thoroughbred Program celebrates participants in October

The 30th annual Owners' Day celebration Oct. 1 was an event fit for the "Sport of Kings" as owners, trainers and guests were given "The Royal Treatment" for the day that included 11 live races, two stakes races, DCTP Awards, check presentations to the Permanently Disabled Jockeys Fund, MidAtlantic Horse Rescue and CANTER Delaware, along with a special dedication of the turf course to John Mooney as he retired as Director of Racing.

The two stakes were taken by Delaware Certified horses trained by Gary Capuano, who captured a third win on the day with another Delaware Certified horse, Stacks of Silver.

The $100,000 George Rosenberg Memorial and DTHA Governor's Day Handicap offered an additional $50,000 purse bonus for DCTP eligible horses that finish in the top three positions, so Capuano-trained Shackqueenking and Malibu Beauty raced for $150,000 and took home the winning enhanced purse! Jockey Mychel Sanchez was aboard for the wins and notched his 1,000th career win on Malibu Beauty.

There was a check presentation to the PDJF, where the jockey colony at Delaware Park donates $1 from every mount and Delaware Park, Delaware Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association, Delaware Jockeys Health & Welfare Board match their donations annually.

The aftercare program at Delaware Park is managed by Beverly Strauss from the MidAtlantic Horse Rescue and Lauren Gassaway from CANTER DE. They were on hand to accept the annual donation from Delaware Park and DTHA.

Director of Racing, John Mooney was honored in the winner's circle with a proclamation from the State for his many years of dedicated service to the industry. Governor John Carney, Lt. Gov. Bethany Hall-Long, Sen. Jack Walsh, Senate Pro Tem Dave Sokola, along with other members of the General Assembly, John's family, friends and employees were on hand to congratulate him.

MARYLAND HORSE BREEDERS ASSOCIATION
Since 1929

Maryland Horse Breeders Association

The Maryland Horse Breeders Association (MHBA) has been the leading horse industry advocate in the state since its founding in 1929. It functions as an informational resource for horse breeders and owners, for the media, for national, community and governmental organizations and for the general public.

As a service organization, the MHBA provides industry information, educational opportunities and legislative representation to its membership, who include breeders, owners, trainers and horse enthusiasts of all kinds. The MHBA publishes a weekly e-mail bulletin and a monthly newsletter, Maryland Horse, as well as Mid-Atlantic Thoroughbred magazine.

The Maryland Horse Library & Education Center, operated by the Maryland Horse Foundation (the charitable arm of the MHBA), officially opened in December 2022 and is the largest of its kind on the east coast, its shelves holding thousands of books dedicated exclusively to horses.

In addition, the MHBA maintains several websites: MarylandThoroughbred.com, a resource for news and information on Maryland breeding and racing; MidAtlanticTB.com, which carries regional news, information on the magazine, and access to the digital edition of Mid-Atlantic Thoroughbred; marylandmillion.com for news and events about Maryland's Day at the Races; and mdthoroughbredhalloffame.com which showcases full biographies of the Maryland-bred Hall of Fame horses.

The MHBA helped innovate, and now administers, several state-oriented incentive programs. Both the Maryland-Bred Race Fund, created by statute in 1962 for Thoroughbreds foaled in Maryland, and the Maryland Million, chartered in 1985 for Thoroughbreds conceived in Maryland, were the first programs of their kind anywhere in the U.S. ✹

The Maryland Fund: Maryland-bred awards

The Maryland Fund was created by the General Assembly in 1962. Maryland was the first state to develop a legislated incentive program to encourage the improvement of Thoroughbred breeding and racing.

In Maryland, there are six categories through which monies for Maryland-breds are made available: 1) purse money for races for registered Maryland-breds; 2) awards for owners of registered Maryland-breds finishing first, second or third; 3) awards for breeders of registered Maryland-breds finishing first, second or third; 4) awards for stallions who sire registered Maryland-breds finishing first, second or third; and 5) bonus awards for the highest-earning 2 and 3-year-olds shown at the annual MHBA yearling show and 6) an allocation for purses/bonuses for Maryland-sired horses.

Currently, the Maryland Fund receives slightly less than 1 percent of the total mutuel handle and breakage from Laurel and Pimlico (the state's two major tracks), and receives approximately 1.5 percent of the mutuel handle and 5.0 percent of the breakage at Timonium (the state's only minor track).

Owner awards are paid by the purse account to the owners of all registered Maryland-breds when they finish first, second or third in any race other than stakes. Bonuses are paid to eligible horses in the form of developer (15 percent) and owner (15 percent) bonuses in relation to the horse's share of the purse.

Breeder and stallion awards are paid for the registered Maryland-bred who finishes first, second or third in any race in Maryland. Breeder awards are 22.5 percent of a horse's share of the purse; stallion awards are 7.5 percent. An additional 7.5 percent breeder bonus is paid on those horses who are Maryland-bred and Maryland sired placing first in a maiden race. In stakes races the award is based on the first $100,000 of the gross purse.

In order to earn a breeder award, the horse must be registered as a Maryland-bred. In order to earn a stallion award, the horse must be registered as a Maryland-bred, and the sire must be registered with the MHBA, in addition to having been standing in Maryland at the time the horse was conceived.

The Maryland Fund program is administered by the Maryland Racing Commission with the assistance and advice of the Maryland Fund Advisory Committee chaired by David Hayden, a member of the Maryland Racing Commission. Under the direction of the commission, the actual implementation of the fund, including maintaining the Maryland-bred registry and computing and distributing all bonus awards, is performed by the MHBA.

Breeder and stallion award percentages are evaluated on a bi-annual basis on the advice of the Maryland Fund Advisory Committee. Owner award percentages are determined by a separate agreement. (For Maryland Million day, breeder and stallion award percentages are determined annually.) Awards are paid as soon as practical.

The stakes program is planned on a meet by meet basis and is based on projected track handles for the coming year. ✹

2022 Maryland sires

Statistics compiled by The Jockey Club Information Systems for stallions who currently stand or concluded their careers in the state and are represented by earnings of $1,000 or more in 2022. Statistics are for racing through December 31, 2022, and include foreign results for all Northern and Southern Hemisphere countries as reported to TJCIS. †Indicates stallion represented by first crop to race. Explanation for abbreviations: Foals—total registered foals; Strs.—starters; Sts.—starts; Wnrs.—winners; %—percentage of winners from starters; SW—stakes winners.

Thoroughbred Breeders' Association of New Jersey

The Thoroughbred Breeders' Association of New Jersey is an organization dedicated to fostering and promoting the breeding and ownership of Thoroughbred horses in the state of New Jersey. Active since 1945, the association's primary role is to administer a New Jersey-bred incentive program for breeders, stallion owners and racehorse owners.

Benefits to members include a subscription to Mid-Atlantic Thoroughbred, discounted member rates for foal registrations, access to online pedigree reports and manufacturer's discounts for farm equipment through NTRA Advantage and Equine Equipment.

The association also maintains a close alliance with the New Jersey Racing Commission, the New Jersey Department of Agriculture and the Equine Advisory Board, as well as the New Jersey Horse Council.

New Jersey Breeders' Program

Requirements for eligibility to the New Jersey Breeders' Program:

(a) In order to be eligible to enter and start in races exclusively for New Jersey bred foals, each New Jersey bred foal must be registered with the Thoroughbred Breeders' Association of New Jersey (TBANJ).

(b) To qualify for such registration, the said horse must have been foaled in the State of New Jersey by a resident New Jersey mare or a non-resident New Jersey mare.

(c) A resident New Jersey mare is a mare that resides in New Jersey continuously from Nov. 1 of the year prior to the foaling through the date of foaling. A mare purchased at public auction subsequent to Oct. 17 of the year prior to foaling, is considered a resident New Jersey mare provided that she commences residence in New Jersey within two weeks of her purchase and continuously resides in New Jersey through the date of foaling. For the purpose of this paragraph, public auction is defined as an auction generally regarded as a public auction in the Thoroughbred horse industry and recognized as same by the TBANJ.

2. A non-resident New Jersey mare is a mare that has not returned to New Jersey by Nov. 1 of the year prior to foaling. The resulting foal can still be registered as a New Jersey-bred provided the mare is bred to a registered New Jersey stallion the season of the birth of said foal and remain in New Jersey for a continuous period of 90 days after foaling.

3. A "New Jersey stallion" is a stallion resident and standing in the State of New Jersey the full breeding season, commonly understood to be the period from Feb. 1 through July 1 of the subject year. If a stallion is brought into New Jersey subsequent to the start of the breeding season, he may be approved as a "New Jersey stallion" by the New Jersey Racing Commission upon recommendation of the Board of Trustees of the TBANJ provided that he stands and is a resident in New Jersey for the remainder of the breeding season. For those stallions brought into New Jersey subsequent to the commencement of the breeding season, approval by the TBANJ as a "New Jersey stallion" is only for the period from the date of approval through the end of the breeding season. All "New Jersey stallions" must be registered with the TBANJ and all appropriate fees paid prior to Feb. 1 of the breeding season or, in the case of a stallion entering the State subsequent to the start of the breeding season, prior to serving the first mare. Failure to meet the above criteria solely by reason of death of the stallion does not disqualify said stallion as a "New Jersey stallion."

Breeders qualify for awards when the owner of a mare registers the foal with the TBANJ. The breeder will receive a percentage based on what that foal earns when finishing first through fourth at a New Jersey track in both open and restricted New Jersey-bred races.

Award percentages for breeders – 35 percent* is paid if the foal is by a registered New Jersey stallion; 25 percent* if the foal is by a stallion standing in a state other than New Jersey.

In order for stallion owners to qualify for awards, the owner must register the stallion annually with the TBANJ. Stallion owners will receive an award equal to 10 percent* of what all foals by said stallion earn when finishing first through fourth at a New Jersey track in both open and restricted New Jersey-bred races.

Owners of New Jersey-bred horses will receive an award equal to 10 percent* when their New Jersey-bred horse finishes first through fourth at a New Jersey track in open races.

There is a $10,000 maximum for first and $5,000 for second through fourth on each award in each race. Total awards are based on funds generated annually.*

Established in late 1979 by a small but dedicated group of Thoroughbred owners and breeders, the North Carolina Thoroughbred Association is a nonprofit, all-volunteer organization governed by an elected board of directors and officers.

The mission statement of the North Carolina Thoroughbred Association reads as follows:

- To promote the Thoroughbred industry in North Carolina;
- To provide educational opportunity to its members in all aspects of the industry;
- To provide its members with the opportunity to develop working relationships, and to meet as friends and colleagues, thereby encouraging excellence and outstanding achievements of members.

PENNSYLVANIA HORSE BREEDERS ASSOCIATION

Pennsylvania Horse Breeders Association (PHBA), a not-for-profit organization founded in 1948, has as its main priority protection of Pennsylvania's Thoroughbred breeding and racing industries. These industries are important agricultural institutions that play significant roles in the state's economy, generating tremendous tax revenues for the state and making substantial contributions to the state's economy in general, while helping to sustain Pennsylvania's rural character.

Working with other industry leaders over the years, PHBA has attained several goals that have had far-reaching benefits. One such goal was the establishment of the Pennsylvania Breeding Fund, which became a reality in 1974. The fund program, administered by PHBA, has evolved into one of the country's most lucrative incentive programs. ✹

Pennsylvania Breeding Fund

Pennsylvania's Breeding Fund program distributes more money, on a per foal basis, than nearly every other state-bred program now in operation. Established in 1974, the Pennsylvania Breeding Fund has grown from a disbursement of $65,000 in its initial year of operation to an average of $28 million in the last 10 years.

Thoroughbred breeding and racing is a high-risk enterprise, but for breeders of PA-Breds, owners of stallions standing in this state, and owners of PA-Breds racing at PARX Racing, Penn National and Presque Isle Downs, the added rewards can be one factor that makes for a winning stable.

The Pennsylvania Breeding Fund is financed by a percentage of the state's racing fund, after expenses, and slot revenues. It provides for individual award payments (breeder and stallion awards), overnight races for PA-Breds, purse bonus supplements, PA-Bred stakes races, and reimbursement of expenses incurred by the Pennsylvania Horse Breeders Association (PHBA) in its role as program administrator.

While benefitting owners and breeders with its incentive awards, the Fund serves a wider purpose, helping to support live racing at PARX Racing, Penn National and Presque Isle Downs. By making it worthwhile for owners to race PA-Breds in their native state, the Breeding Fund program channels a steady supply of competitive runners to the Pennsylvania tracks, and makes it less likely that our homegrown product will be lured to competing race tracks within the region.

Pennsylvania's breeding and racing industry contributes approximately $1.6 billion annually to the state's economy, so it is clear that the state has a vested interest in supporting these activities.

By law, PHBA is responsible for administering the Breeding Fund program for the State Horse Racing Commission, and maintaining an up-to-date registry of PA-Breds and Pennsylvania stallions.

A Thoroughbred foal born in the state of Pennsylvania and registered as such with The Jockey Club is eligible for Pennsylvania-bred registration with the PHBA if one of the following conditions is met:

1) The dam of the foal resided continuously in Pennsylvania since Dec. 1 of the year of conception through foaling. Mares not being bred back will fall under this category.
2) The dam of the foal was purchased at a public sale after Dec. 1 of the year of conception and brought into Pennsylvania within 14 days of the date of purchase (60 days if outside the U.S.) and remained continuously through foaling. During the year of foaling, the foal or its dam spent at least ninety (90) days in the state. Private transactions are not eligible for domicile waiver.
3) The dam of the foal arrived after Dec. 1 of the year of conception, foaled in Pennsylvania and was bred back to a registered PA stallion standing in Pennsylvania and the dam of the foal resided sixty (60) consecutive days during which foaling occurred.

There are two distinctions when registering a PA-Bred foal: those sired by registered Pennsylvania stallions and those sired by non-registered stallions.

PA-Breds have preferred starter status within the conditions in most non-restricted overnight races. The preference is claimed by trainers at the time of entry.

RACING INCENTIVES

- Owner bonus of up to 40 percent of purse earned for first, second and third-place finishes on all unrestricted overnight races.
- More than 400 restricted races offered, and 29 restricted stakes which include a PA-Bred, PA-Sired series for 2-year-olds. PA-Sired horses run for 25 percent additional in all PA-Bred stakes races, unless the stakes is for PA-Sired PA-Breds.

BREEDING INCENTIVES

- Breeder awards of 50 percent for first, second and third-place purses earned for registered PA-Sired PA-Breds for all PA maiden classes (40 percent in all other PA races); 25 percent for first, second and third-place purses earned for registered non-PA-Sired PA-Breds for all PA maiden classes (20 percent for all other PA races).
- Stallion awards of 10 percent paid to the owner of a registered Pennsylvania stallion for purses earned by registered Pennsylvania-Breds in all races at Pennsylvania tracks. ✹

2022 Pennsylvania sires

Statistics compiled by The Jockey Club Information Systems for stallions who currently stand or concluded their careers in the state and are represented by earnings of $1,000 or more in 2022. Statistics are for racing through December 31, 2022 and include foreign results for all Northern and Southern Hemisphere countries as reported to TJCIS. †Indicates stallion represented by first crop to race. Explanation for abbreviations: Foals—total registered foals; Strs.—starters; Sts.—starts; Wnrs.—winners; %—percentage of winners from starters; SW—stakes winners.

South Carolina Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association

The mission of the South Carolina Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association (SCTOBA) is to promote the Thoroughbred horse industry in the state and throughout the region.

The SCTOBA works to create awareness of the tremendous economic impact the Thoroughbred horse industry has in the state. The organization is a blend of members who have interest in the various aspects of the Thoroughbred business – breeding, training and racing.

The organization reaches out to partner with sister organizations such as the Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation of South Carolina and other regional state associations. In doing so, the SCTOBA looks to provide leadership and solutions to the challenges presented by the Thoroughbred business.

Our farms and training centers represent our state across the country with graduates continuously winning stakes events. ✹

Virginia Thoroughbred Association

The Virginia Thoroughbred Association (VTA) was organized in 1942 to cultivate further development of the Commonwealth's heritage as a producer of quality Thoroughbred horses.

With the passage of parimutuel racing legislation, the VTA has vastly expanded the scope of its operations, both to assist in developing rules under which a parimutuel breeders' fund is administered by the Virginia Racing Commission, and to address the opportunities racing holds forth to strengthen and enhance Virginia's standing as one of the world's important centers for Thoroughbred nurseries.

Above all, the VTA is a service organization whose main goal is to assist members in achieving success with Thoroughbreds. ✹

Virginia Breeders' Fund

Rules for registering with the Virginia Breeders' Fund:

A Virginia-bred horse is a Thoroughbred horse registered by The Jockey Club, foaled in Virginia and registered with the Virginia Thoroughbred Association. A breeders award is earned when a registered Virginia-bred wins a race at a sanctioned meet in North America. Virginia-breds are eligible for Virginia restricted races.

A Virginia-sired horse is a horse registered with the Jockey Club, conceived in Virginia, foaled outside of Virginia and sired by a stallion registered with the Virginia Thoroughbred Association (VTA). Breeders of Virginia-sired horses are not eligible for Virginia Breeders' awards. Virginia-sired horses are eligible for all Virginia restricted races.

Virginia-bred or Virginia-sired foal registration:

Foals of 2023 are eligible for registration with the Virginia Breeders' Fund. A 2023 foal born in Virginia can be registered as a Virginia-bred by Dec. 31, 2023, for $25 (VTA member fee) or $125 (non-member fee). If the foal is not registered by Dec. 31 of its foaling year, it can be registered as a yearling for $50 (VTA member fee) or $150 (non-member fee) or as a 2-year-old or older at a fee of $200 (VTA member fee) or $300 (non-member fee).

Foals dropped outside of Virginia but sired by a Virginia registered stallion may be registered as a Virginia-sired foal. The fee to register a Virginia-sired horse is $25 (VTA member fee) or $125 (non-member fee).

Stallion registration:

Virginia stallions must register with the Virginia Thoroughbred Association annually by Dec. 31. The annual registration makes a Virginia stallion owner eligible to receive stallion awards based on the performance of the resulting foal crop from the breeding season in which the stallion is registered (for example Virginia stallions registered in 2023 are eligible for awards based on the performance of their 2024 foal crop). The fee to register a stallion is $100 (VTA member fee) or $200 (non-member fee).

Fund distribution:

The Virginia Breeders' Fund is generated by 1 percent of every dollar wagered on live racing, OTBs and ADW in Virginia. The Fund also receives .025 percent from the gross proceeds of Historic Horse Racing. Each year the Virginia Racing Commission approves how the money in the fund is allocated.

A large portion of the fund ($975,000 for 2022) is set aside for payments to breeders of registered Virginia-breds that win races at any race track in North America. There is a $25,000 cap on any single award. In 2022 Breeders' awards averaged 32% of each winning purse.

A smaller portion ($75,000 for 2022) is set aside for payments to owners of registered Virginia stallions whose offspring win at any racetrack in North America.

Monies are also set aside to supplement purses for races restricted to registered Virginia-bred or Virginia-sired horses. ✹

2022 Virginia-bred or Virginia-sired Owners' Bonus Awards*

In 2016 the VHBPA and the VTA implemented a new owners bonus program that awards owners of registered Virginia-bred and Virginia-sired horses that win at Mid-Atlantic region racetracks. The owner of a registered Virginia-bred or sired horse earns 25 percent more for a win at a Maryland, West Virginia, Delaware, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania or Virginia track. The 25 percent Virginia-bred or sired owner's bonus is also earned for wins at National Steeplechase Association sanctioned meets in the Mid-Atlantic region. There is a $10,000 cap on any single award. Wins in Virginia-bred or Virginia restricted races are not eligible for owner's bonuses. PLEASE SEE VABRED.ORG FOR IMPORTANT 2023 PROGRAM RULE CHANGES AND UPDATES.

2022 Virginia-Certified Developer Bonuses*

Developers of Virginia-certified horses earn a bonus of 25% of the winning purse when a certified horse wins at a Mid-Atlantic racetrack. A Developer is defined as the person or entity listed on the chart as owner when the Virginia-certified horse makes its first start. Developers earn 10% of the winning purse in West Virginia restricted races. Bonuses are paid for wins in NY, NJ, PA, DE, MD, WV and VA and all NSA sanctioned meets in the Mid-Atlantic region. Wins in Virginia restricted races are not eligible for Developer bonuses. There is a $10,000 cap on any single award. PLEASE SEE VABRED.ORG FOR IMPORTANT 2023 PROGRAM RULE CHANGES AND UPDATES.

A Virginia-certified horse is a horse registered by The Jockey Club, conceived, and foaled outside of Virginia but that maintains residency in Virginia for at least six (6) consecutive months prior to December 31 of its 2-year-old year. The horse must reside at a listed Virginia facility, where the horse is available for inspection by a VACTP official.

2022 Virginia sires

Statistics compiled by The Jockey Club Information Systems for stallions who currently stand or concluded their careers in the state and are represented by earnings of $1,000 or more in 2022. Statistics are for racing through December 31, 2022, and include foreign results for all Northern and Southern Hemisphere countries as reported to TJCIS. †Indicates stallion represented by first crop to race. Explanation for abbreviations: Foals—total registered foals; Strs.—starters; Sts.—starts; Wnrs.—winners; %—percentage of winners from starters; SW—stakes winners.

West Virginia Thoroughbred Breeders Association

The West Virginia Thoroughbred Breeders Association promotes the Thoroughbred breeding and racing industries in West Virginia through the financial incentives of breeders' awards programs.

The WVTBA sponsors races and activities throughout the year. An annual West Virginia-bred and/or sired horse show offers classes with cash awards and trophies. Additional activities include seminars and an annual awards dinner in late February/early March. The WVTBA is part of the West Virginia Fest in June in Charles Town, and hosts an annual meeting in November.

In 1968, when the West Virginia Thoroughbred Breeders Association was started, the West Virginia foal crop numbered less than 70. The numbers didn't increase much above 100 until the Development Fund was begun in 1984. Now several hundred West Virginia-bred and/or sired foals are born each year.

Please contact the WVTBA for registration rules and fees.

Membership dues are $100 per year. If paid by June 30, members receive reduced registration rates for West Virginia-bred and/or sired horses. Please see the WVTBA website for other benefits and check out our Facebook page for news.

Call or write the WVTBA for information on how you may participate and benefit from our outstanding program. Office hours are 9 a.m. to 1 p.m., Tuesday through Saturday. ✹

It PAYS to have a West Virginia-Bred and/or -Sired Horse!

WV BREEDERS PROGRAMS OFFER SOME OF THE BEST INCENTIVES IN THE NATION:

- A minimum of three accredited races are written every day at Charles Town exclusively for registered WV-bred and/or -sired horses.
- West Virginia has the only program in the country that permits horses to win state-bred races that do not count against the horse's lifetime open conditions.
- The WV Thoroughbred Development Fund distributes over $4.5 million to breeders, owners, and sire owners of accredited WV-bred and/or -sired horses based the horse's annual earnings at Charles Town and Mountaineer Park racetracks.
- The West Virginia Breeders Classics pays out almost $1 million in purses for WV-bred and/or -sired horses. It is held annually on the 2nd Saturday in October.
- $800,000 in purses are allocated for up to sixteen WV accredited stakes races during the year.
- Supplemental Purse Awards of up to 10% of the winner's share of the purse to the owner, breeder, and/or sire owner of the accredited WV-bred and/or -sired winner.
- West Virginia offers year-round racing with approximately 300 race days per year.

2022 sales horses by Mid-Atlantic stallions

The following results, for 2022, represent all stallions who stand or completed their stud careers in the Mid-Atlantic region. Categories are divided by age groups—weanlings, yearlings and 2-year-olds. Information is provided as follows: Stallion's name, year of birth, sire and state where stallion was last reported as standing at stud; name of foal, sex, dam, sale code, buyer and price. RNA (reserve not attained) includes the last bid recorded, shown in parentheses. Sales results were compiled by The Jockey Club Information Systems. Data provided or compiled by The Jockey Club Information Systems generally is accurate, but occasionally errors and omissions occur as a result of incorrect data received by others, mistakes in processing and other causes. Therefore, The Jockey Club Information Systems makes no representations of warranties, express or implied, including those of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose, as to any matter whatsoever, including but not limited to, the accuracy of any information, product, program or service furnished hereunder and all such information, products, programs and/or services are accepted on an "as is" basis.

Virginia has lots of ways to play

Virginia Breeders*

Foal your mare in Virginia and earn Breeder awards for ANY WIN IN NORTH AMERICA (in 2022 awards were over 30% of the winning purses.)

Virginia-Bred/Sired/Certified Developers*

VA-Certified Developers:
Developers of VA-Certified horses earn up to a 25% bonus for any win in the Mid-Atlantic region (NY, NJ, PA, DE, MD, WV), including NSA-sanctioned meets. VA-Certified Developers earn a 10% bonus for state-bred-restricted races in the Mid-Atlantic region. (Beginning with foals of 2023, bonuses will not be earned for wins in West Virginia).

VA-Bred or Sired Developers:
Beginning with foals of 2021, the developer will earn up to a 25% bonus on wins in the Mid-Atlantic region.

Virginia-Bred/Sired/Certified Owners*

VA-bred or VA-Sired Owners:

- Owners of foals prior to 2021 earn up to a 25% bonus on wins in the Mid-Atlantic region, including NSA-sanctioned meets.
- Owners earn a 50% bonus on purses 1st-4th in all open races at Colonial Downs.
- Increased purses for VA-Restricted races at Colonial Downs.
- Five VA-Bred & VA-Sired stakes at Colonial Downs with $125,000 purses.
- Six VA-Restricted stakes at Colonial Downs with $150,000 purses.

VA-Certified Owners:

- Increased purses for VA-Restricted races at Colonial Downs.
- Six VA-Restricted stakes at Colonial Downs with $100,000 purses.
